

*The tearful joy of a mother.
The excitement as a child
The excitement as a teen
The excitement as an adult
Most of all is when you put your fingerprints on my face.
The tearful joy of a mother's place!*

Obituary

Joyce Dickson was born to the union of H.W. and Mayodis Dickson of Vian, Oklahoma, March 17, 1934.

Joyce attended Douglas High School in Vian, Oklahoma where she graduated. She later attended Langston University in Langston, Oklahoma where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree.

She began her career with Urban Renewal, and later joined the Department of Human Services, eventually transferring and retiring from that department. Joyce became a board member of the Housing Authority in Muskogee, Oklahoma.

Joyce married William Floyd Jr. and gave birth to four children: Joycelyn Floyd Thomas "Peaches", Lois "Candy", Carmen, and William Floyd III. Her oldest daughter Joycelyn "Peaches" preceded her in death, March 22, 1978.

Joyce was the fourth of seven siblings, six of which preceded her in death: Charles, Leonard, Kelley (Joyce), William, Clara, Paul.

Joyce leaves to cherish her memory, three children, a host of nieces and nephews; one grandson, one granddaughter, one great granddaughter; other relatives and friends.

IN OUR HEARTS

We thought of you with love today,

But that is nothing new.

We thought about you yesterday,

and the days before that too.

We think of you in silence,

We often speak your name.

Now all we have is memories,

and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is our keepsake,

with which we'll never part.

God has you in His keeping,

We have you in our heart.
