Acknowledgement

Our cousins Angela Moore and Rachel Jackson, you are more like sisters than cousins. We love you and thank you for always being a part of Mom's life!

Much thanks to Pastor Gabriel and the congregations of Church of the Living God Temple for their continued gratifying support and guidance throughout this emotional journey.

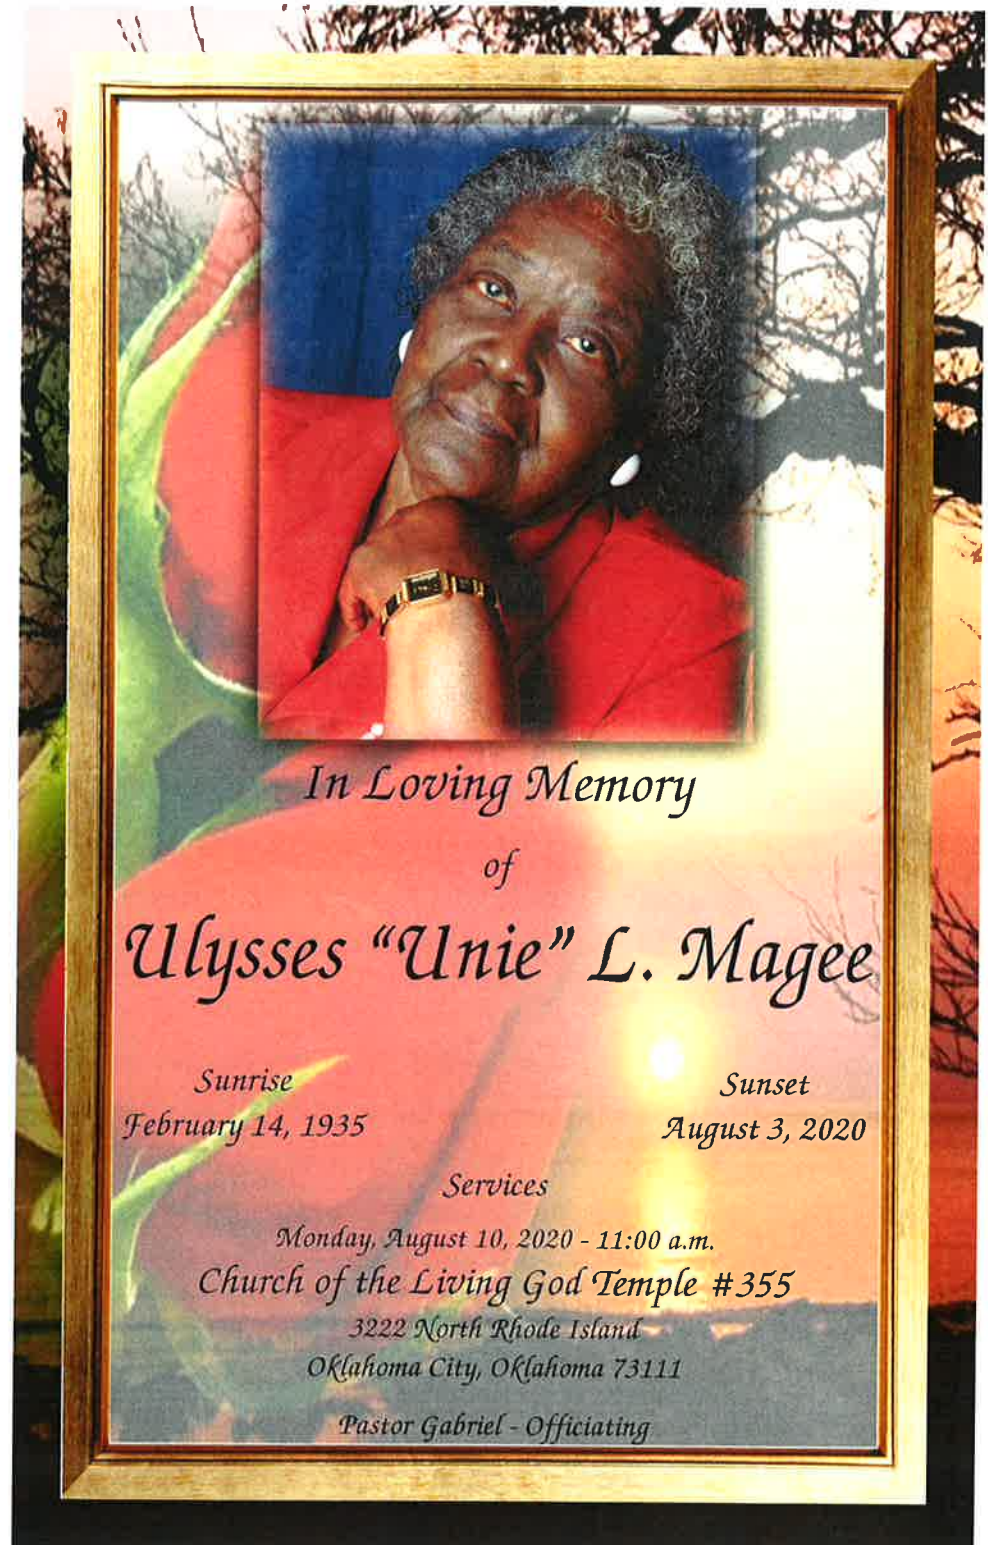

Dearest relatives and friends, your generosity has ministered to us in ways that you will never know. In the coming days, months, and years we will remember the great acts of kindness shown to us during this most difficult time. Please know that with grateful hearts we praise God for you. Loving and thankfully submitted, the family of Ulysses L. Magee.

Repast will be at Church of the Living God Temple, 3222 North Rhode Island Avenue, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73111

Obituary

Mrs. Ulysses L. Magee “Unie” was born to Edward Hall and Gertha Jones-Hall (Williams) on February 14, 1935. She was born and raised in Idabel, Oklahoma where she graduated high school. Unie moved to Oklahoma City in the early fifties, and attended school to become a Registered Nurse.

Ulysses was the best mother she could be to her six boys. She was also a beautiful wife to Easley Magee, Jr., who preceded her in death. Ulysses was also an amazing Grandmother and Aunt that anyone could have.

Ulysses spoke nothing but the truth and didn’t mind telling you when you were wrong.

Ulysses was baptized in the name of Jesus in 1975, under Bishop Arnett Bryant Sr. where she later became a faithful member and grew to become an Evangelist at Greater New Bethlehem Temple. She later moved her membership to Church of the Living God Temple.

Evangelist Magee was preceded in death by her parents, Gertha Jones-Hall (Williams) and Edward Hall; her husband, Easley Magee Jr.; her son, Michael DeWayne Young; her sisters, Otha Mae Jackson, Bessie Mae Hall and Willie Mae Carter; her brother, James Hall and niece, Esther Braxton.

She leaves to cherish her memories, sons, Gerald (Vicki) Young, Bruce Johnson, Ed Johnson, Robert (Joy) Johnson, Richard (Janie) Johnson, and Murle Sango; a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends who will truly miss her.
