Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the day and the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom-filled room. Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not too long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love we once shared---- Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take and each must go alone. It's all part of the maker's plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds---- Miss me but let me go.

OBITUARY

On April 8th, 1950, Donald Ray Magness was born to Freddie Mae Lefford and Eldridge Magness in Oklahoma City OK. Donald Ray was born in Oklahoma City, but the family later moved to Wichita, KS. He attended school in Wichita, KS.

Donnie Ray was a laid back type of person. Before becoming totally disabled, Donnie Ray did construction work for different companies. He loved sports, Cadillac's, Lincoln's, the women at the nursing home he lived at and his family. He enjoyed going to rodeos and listening to country music. He was always ready for a challenge, hence his love for playing dominoes and chess.

He loved sports and was a huge fan of OSU football. He always wanted an update on all of his family. He always loved when anyone visited him especially his granddaughter Nadia, his nephew Thurwayne, and sometimes his brother Sterlin. Donnie Ray met Linda Gordon and later they had Tamesha Brown.

We accepted him into our lives, when he met Everline (Darlene) Richmond in the 80's. He had a great sense of humor and a wonderful smile. He will be missed by his family and friends.
