Our Beautiful Black

Now I lay me down to sleep, I heard the Lord when he started to speak.

My mind was tired, my body was weak. I just needed time to sleep.

God called my name I had to go, your loving faces, I would see no more.

Please do not worry, I am not alone.

The family is calling, come on home.

Grandma is smiling and Grandpa too, saying welcome to Heaven we really missed you.

Down on earth you did your best, now sweet child it is time to rest.

I cannot call, write or text, but being here in Heaven is truly the best.

Love you all

Goodbye kiss

Today is a hard day for me as I know you can imagine, but Mama I'm holding it together! The days have been long and my nights have been rough, but knowing that you're resting with no more pain or sleepless nights brings my heart so much comfort. I know that the road I have ahead of me will be tough and I know that I may face dark days, but I'll never have to face them alone. I love you and I'm happy you're finally home! From your one and only son, your first born.

Mommy.

Mommy I'm so sorry you ever had to go through any of this pain, but I'm a little better you're no longer in pain. You've been through a lot in your 46 years, but I never thought I'd be having to say goodbye this early. Man I'm gonna miss hearing you say " Iain't one of you little friends " then turn around and still be wanting to hear all the tea . I'm gonna miss being all the way across town or just leaving the house and you call so I can come get you some ice . Man I know this is gone be a hard road for me without you here but you did all you could do and baby you did an amazing job at It and I thank you so much for everything you've showed and taught me. I really don't want to say goodbye because my heart won't let me so I'm going to say I see you later for now. lord knows I never wanted to feel this pain but I know it will get better soon. I love you my sweet , beautiful , chocolate drop ♡♡☐
