This Is My Story

On September 25, 1952, a precious bundle of joy was delivered to Marshall and Mattie Richardson in The Unity Community of Holdenville, OK. They lovingly named him WAYNE DORNELL. He was the 9th of 11 children born to the union.

Wayne attended elementary and high school at Moss School, Holdenville, OK. He graduated high school in 1970 and afterwards attended Okmulgee Tech. He joined the Marine Corps in 1971, where he served four years and received the National Defense Service Medal. He continued his education at Central State University. He began his career at Tinker Air Force Base, where he spent 34 years. He retired as an Aircraft Inspector in 2014. After retirement, he placed his focus on his real estate consulting business.

Wayne was baptized at an early age by Rev. Freddie Griffis at Unity Baptist Church, in the rural Unity Community. As a child, he attended sunday school, church, prayer meetings, and other church functions. The teachings of his early years were ingrained in him, and he attended these services until God called him home.

On February 1, 1981, Wayne joined Redeemed Missionary Baptist under the leadership of Rev. L.R. Drinkwater, Sr. Eventually, all his siblings, who lived locally, became members of Redeemed as well. He was ordained as a Deacon on April 30, 1989. He was a member of the Brotherhood and former Sunday School class. He was a faithful member and continued his duties as a deacon until he became ill. He enjoyed driving and viewing the countryside.

Wayne was a kind-hearted, intelligent, and caring man. He was always willing to help anyone in need. He was a longtime volunteer at a homeless shelter, where he assisted with feeding the hungry. He loved sports (basketball, football, and baseball). He played softball for a local team, The All Stars, in his younger days. He still loved to participate in softball games during family outings. He also loved to talk politics, play dominoes, and spend time with family. He loved his son, daughter, and grandson unconditionally. He liked good food; his favorites were chicken ‘n dressings, greens, banana pudding, and butter-rolls. But most importantly, he loved being a servant of God, his church, and church family.

On September 28, 2020, Wayne Dornell Richardson was Called to Rest by Our Heavenly Father. His parents, brother, Barry “Skeet,” and beloved niece, Kellie Allen, preceded him in death.

Those left to cherish his memory are: his son, Braxton Quinn Richardson; daughter, LaKisha Renee’ Boyce of Cedar Hills, TX; grandson, Bryce Jakobi Dixon; seven sisters, Naomi Poston, Barbara Allen, Gloria Richardson, Annola Richardson, Marcilla (Virgil) Smith, Marie (Archie) Landon, and Sheila Richardson, all of Oklahoma City; two brothers, Marshall (Jean) Richardson of Oklahoma City and Larry (Darlene) Richardson of Shawnee, OK; one aunt, Edna M. Smith of Oklahoma City; a host of nieces, nephews, other extended family, church family, and friends who all loved him dearly.
