Obituary

A.C. Stiff Henderson was born August 11, 1921 in Yazoo County, Benton, Mississippi. She was the fourth of five children. She was preceded in death by her husband Arthur Henderson, mother Frances Bardney Stiff, father Willie Stiff, brothers: Eddie Stiff, Joe Stiff, Willie Stiff, and N.T. Stiff; children: Warren C. Henderson and Dianne Henderson-Lovelace.

A.C. graduated from Kings High School in Yazoo, Mississippi and was an active member of Watergrove Baptist Church.

A.C. met Arthur Henderson and later married on October 20, 1942, and to this union were twelve children, six girls and six boys.

The family of A.C. and Arthur Henderson continued to be farmers until moving to Oklahoma in 1961. It is there A.C. started her career in the nursing field until retirement. She also was a member of First A.M.E. Church and later joined the Followers of the Lord Jesus Christ until the disassemble.

A.C. Henderson was a loving mother, sister, aunt, grandmother and great grandmother. She also was a mother to the motherless. She always had something to say that would encourage and help aid in whatever you needed. She was a giving person, if she had it you surely could get it. She knew and loved the Lord and always told you that famous saying, "The Lord will make a way, just trust Him." She would support her family in any way that she could. A.C. was an avid cook and gardener and everything she touched thrived and multiplied and she had a willingness of sharing with anyone that was in need.

A.C. Henderson continued to be a pillar in her community until the end with a parade given on her 99th Birthday just to show how grateful they were to have her in their community. Her sweet spirit will continue to touch all those who were blessed with the opportunity to have known her. She maybe gone from this earthly world, but will never be forgotten.

A.C. leaves to cherish her memories, daughters: Maxine Loggins of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Aream Franklin of Choctaw, Oklahoma, Elizabeth Bruner of Oklahoma City, Imogene Ekpo of Midwest City, Oklahoma, and Williella Loggins (Derwin) of Spencer, Oklahoma; sons: Clea Arthur Henderson (Ann) of Oklahoma City, Willie Henderson (Rebecca) of Oklahoma City, Calvin Henderson (Rose) of Midwest City, Oklahoma, Robert Henderson of Oklahoma City, and Gerone Henderson of Oklahoma City; thirty-one grandchildren, thirty-six great grandchildren, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.

John: 14: 1-3

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. I will come again, and receive you into myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.
