A Poem for You by Your Nephew's

Of all the many blessings However great or small To have had you for an uncle was the greatest one of all. The family chain is broken now and nothing seems the same. But as God takes us one by one the chain will link again

A Tribute to You from Your Siblings:

*Brother,
You gave no one a last farewell, nor did you ever say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. A million times we will miss you. A million times we will cry. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life we loved you dearly. In death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place no one else can fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone. For part of us went with you the day God took you home. We will meet again someday. I know you're in a better place.
I thank God he made you our brother while you were here on earth.*

A Mother's Poem to Her Son: Until We Meet Again

*I think about you always.
I talk about you still.
You have never been forgotten and you never will.
I hold you close within my heart and there you will remain, to walk and guide me through this life until we meet again.*
