OBITUARY FOR

Della Williams

Della Frances Bible was born to William Dukes and Gladys Bible on October 8, 1923 in Wapanucka, Oklahoma. The family moved to Muskogee, when she was very young, where she was raised by her grandparents Worthy and Frances Bible.

She grew up, attending church and school in Muskogee. She graduated from Manual Training High School in 1940. Following graduation, she attended Langston University for a year. About that time, she met Edgar Williams. They were married July 14, 1943. That same year she became a charter member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in Muskogee. She later joined Antioch Baptist Church.

A son, Wyatt Velton, was born to Edgar and Della on November 16, 1956. In 1971, Edgar passed away suddenly. In 1974, after the death of her step-father, Della and Wyatt moved to Oklahoma City to be close to her mother Gladys. She soon joined Hillwood Baptist Church. She was employed by and retired from Tinker Air Force Base. Following the death of her mother in 1990, she moved to Spencer, where she lived until her recent illness.

Preceding her in death are her husband, son, parents, brother and grandparents. Leaving to cherish her memory are cousins: Josephine Wyatt, Edmond, OK; Ella Willis, Tulsa, OK; Gladys Martin & Eugene, Tulsa, OK; Brenda Maddox & Johnnie, Kansas City, MO; Linda Reed & Basil, Chickasha, OK; Sandra Williams, Oklahoma City and her faithful friend Clara Edwards of Oklahoma City.
