

"Lil Roaster"

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me-but let me go

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me but let me go.

Sean Miguel Henderson, age 14 of Oklahoma City, OK, passed away on Friday, October 23, 2020 at OU Medical Center. Sean was born on December 24, 2005 in Glen Bernie, MD. He enjoyed playing video games with "The Squad" (Jax and Terrance) on the X-Box. He absolutely loved music, rather it was creating it in band or listening to his favorite rappers such as Lil Wayne. He loved cooking for his family and the quality time spent with them.

Sean also loved going on walks and finding "unique" items on his neighborhood walks. He loved the holidays and especially the ones that didn't require him or his brothers going to school. He loved Thanksgiving because it was time spent with family. Of all holidays, his favorite was Christmas Eve, his birthday, which meant more family time and cookie muffins. Christmas was another favorite due to celebrating Jesus as well as the family trips to the movies and of course presents. Most importantly, Sean had a deep love for his family and cherished the time they would spend together telling jokes, game nights and attending church together at The Gate.

He leaves behind his mother and father, Natasha Henderson (Oklahoma City, OK) and Jacob Burrage (Atlanta, GA); his brothers, Nigel, Alan and Jordan; his grandparents, Meta Henderson (Oklahoma City, OK) Clyde and Alice Henderson (Raleigh); an uncle, Michael Henderson as well as an aunt Crystal Burrage.

Sean is preceded in death by his great grandparents Ella Hannon, Alan Hannon, Jr. and Nevada Henderson.
