

Legacy and Love

Legacy of Love

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.
You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength, you gave us might.
A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, your heart always kind.
You fought for us all in one way or another, Not just as a wife not just a mother. For all of us you gave your best, Now the time has come for you to rest.
So, go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts,
we'll eternally keep.

Cherished Life

Mrs. Diane Snell was born on July 19, 1948 in San Antonio, Texas to the union of Wilbert R. Gibson and Polly Mae Hastings. Diane was joined in holy matrimony with Collis B. Snell on June 28, 1972.

Diane completed her schooling and began working in the nursing industry. She was employed for years with the San Antonio State Hospital. She later worked as a civilian employee at both Randolph Air Force Base and Kelly Air Force Base where she stayed until the family relocated to Oklahoma in 1998.

Mrs. Snell was baptized in Jesus Name and filled with the Holy Ghost in her early 30's. She began dedicating her life to Christ and served under the leadership of the late Bishop Horace M. Young at Faith Temple Apostolic Church in San Antonio, Texas. Mother Snell proudly served as Faith Temple's missionary president for over 10 years. She also served as an altar worker and choir member during her years at Faith Temple. Mother Snell also served under the leadership of Elder Jack Briggs at Peace Apostolic Church in San Antonio, Texas. Once the family moved to Oklahoma, she faithfully served for 21 years at Greater First Deliverance Temple under the leadership of Bishop V. C. Little. Later in life she devoted her time to Christ through her phone ministry by talking to others about their salvation.

Throughout her life, Diane devoted her time to her family and to the church. She was not only an adoring wife, she was a loving mother, grandmother, friend, and confidant. She was affectionately known as Nana or Mother Snell to her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Wilbert R. Gibson and Polly Mae Hastings, stepfather Morris Robinson Jr., and her daughter Stephanie Diane Ross (Snell).

Her memory will be cherished by her loving husband Collis B. Snell, children; Raymond Gibson (Sharon), Richard Burton (Stephanie), Peter Burton, and Kalli Snell, and her brothers Ronald Robinson and Madison Robinson. Diane also leaves behind 7 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren, and a host of church family and friends.

My Wife in Heaven

I thought of you with love today but that is nothing new I thought about you yesterday and days before that too
I think of you in silence and I often speak your name All I have are memories and your picture in a frame Your memory is my keepsake with which I'll never part God has you in his keeping and I'll always have you in my heart
