My Life Story

BEFORE GOING TO GLORY

Samuel Anum Elder Lartey Jr. was born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on December 1, 1984 to the proud parents of Samuel and Josephine Lartey. He was the 4th to the youngest of 8 children.

In his early adult years, he started to build his personal relationship with Jesus Christ. He was a strong man of faith. Even through tests, trials, struggles, and difficulties, in which we all go through, he still held on to that mustard seed of faith, which did not waiver. For those who knew him deeply throughout his life, knew that he was loved throughout the community. Samuel would give the shirt off his back to anyone that was in need. That is the type of heart that he had. He was also blessed to have two wonderful children, Ominy and Kyree Lartey, who he so deeply loved.

As a child, he so passionately loved basketball and was an athlete throughout his childhood years. He thought that he was going to be the next Michael Jordan, but God had another vision for his life. After graduating from Putnam City West High School in 2003, he made the decision to go into the hair care services industry as a licensed barber to be able to use those gifted hands and skills that the lord blessed him with. Even though he believed that confidence came from knowing who you are and who's you are, he also believed that having the proper grooming would boost one's confidence even more to go out and achieve any goal or aspiration that their heart desired. So, that is the career that he chose to go with for the remainder of his life. God had so much more in store for him, but due to an untimely and premature death, that will unfortunately been unseen.

A Mother's Letter

My Dear Son,

Words can't express the level of hurt and pain that I have, now that you are no longer here with us on this earth. I love you so much junior.

I am so sorry that you had a short life, but while you were here, you were able to use your gift, which were your gifted hands as a licensed barber. In which you were able to meet so many people that were blessed to have an encounter with you. You were my oldest baby boy and a piece of my heart is missing, but I know that one day, as the bible says in Psalm 147:3, he will be able to help heal my broken heart to where I can just cherish the good times that I was able to spend with you on this earth and think of all the wonderful memories that I have of you. All of your siblings will miss you dearly. Your two beautiful children Ominy and Kyree will always love you and miss you, as well as all of your nieces and nephews, best friends, friends, and all of the other individuals that have been touched by their encounter with you. I know that we have another angel watching over us. This is not goodbye, because one day we will see each other again in Heaven son. I know that you are resting in the presence of the Lord.

We love you more than words can say.

Love You Forever,

Mom and Family
