Obituary

Maple Gross Tubbs was born May 4, 1929 in Coyle, Oklahoma to Wesley Gross and Ivy Lee Johnson Gross. She married Odia Tubbs until their divorce. She was preceded in death by her father, mother, son, brothers and sister.

She accepted Christ at an early age where she later united with Mt. Triumph Baptist Church, where she was baptized and an active member of the choir. Later, she united with St. Mark Baptist Church until her health declined.

Maple was employed at Tinker Air Force Base for twenty-nine years. She also worked as a Domestic worker for the families of the Watson, Meiring and Hunzickers until her health failed. She went from cook to friend to part of the family and it has remained that way until her passing. Maple enjoyed cooking, fishing, traveling, and grandkids, great grandkids and a host of God grandkids.

Maple departed this life on Saturday, November 21, 2020. She leaves to cherish her memory two granddaughters: Nina Gross of Del City, Oklahoma and LaDonna Gross of Dallas, Texas; four great grandchildren: Ryan, Keyaira, Tyral, Dajon; five great-great grandchildren, and many God grandchildren. She also leaves a special sister Evelyn Spriggs and the Brison family, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go -
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.
So grieve awhile for me if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for awhile that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say "Welcome Home."
