Obituary

Wesley Dwight Caldwell was born on April 11, 1953 to Guster "Gus" and Katherine Caldwell. He was raised on the family farm and attended Dover School. Following the passing of his parents he moved to California to live with his sister Hazel Williams and graduated high school in California.

Dwight moved back to Dover, OK and worked for Tulsa Pipeline, Capital Well Service, Beard Oil Company, and Kingfisher County District II where he retired.

Dwight married Sandra Costello on July 5, 1975 and unto this union had one daughter.

Dwight was a past member of the Blue Lodge in Dover, OK and the 33rd Lodge in Guthrie, OK. He also served on the board of Opportunities Inc. in Watonga, OK. Dwight was a member and also served as President at the Lone Oak Community Center in Dover, OK where he assisted with community events to include their recent project of starting a "hoop house" to grow fruits and vegetables. He also was active with the East Dover Livestock Association.

Dwight raised cattle on the family farm. He also grew watermelons for several years and could be found on the same corner that was previously occupied by longtime resident Tom Emery, selling his crop. He would be there most weekends and would be teased that there were more people out on his corner than at the two local churches! It was guaranteed that you would get a watermelon and one of his "true stories"!

He was preceded in death by his parents and two sisters Hazel (JB) Williams and Eleanor Vivian (Frank) Buford.

Dwight leaves to cherish his memory his spouse of 45 years, Sandra of the home; daughter Sharon Caldwell of OKC, OK; his five dear nieces and one nephew; three sisters-in-law; two brothers-in-law; and a host of loved ones to include cousins and dear friends.

I Am Learning How To Live

by Jamey Wysocki

I am learning how to live
In a new way
Since that day
You were taken away.

I am learning how to live
With the things left unsaid
Knowing I got to say them with every tear that I shed.

I am learning how to live
By embracing the pain
Knowing that you live on through the memories that remain.

I am learning how to live
Knowing I will never again see your face
And I have peace knowing
You're in a better place.

I am learning how to live
Knowing you're in God's care
It gives me the strength to move on
And makes the pain much easier to bear.
