Robert “Jr.” Clarence White was born to Robert White of Ardmore, Oklahoma and Stella Louise Fullbrite-White of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma on April 6, 1984.

Like his father, Robert loved to go fishing. He also loved watching football and even wrestled for his school when he was younger. Like his mother, he was a great cook with his speciality being home made pizza and barbecue.

His parents preceded him in death, but Robert is survived by his sisters: DeAngela Alexander and Christy Johnson. He is also survived by his nephews: Christopher Alexander, Bryan Alexander; great nephews: Lamarius Alexander and Benny Williams; as well as nieces: Ashley McClain and Queen Johnson, great niece, Celeste Williams, and “Aunt Kay”; and a host of other family and friends.

Robert “Jr.” Clarence White was deeply loved by his family and will sincerely be missed by all.
