The Life of Roggie Lee Fisher

Roggie Lee Perry was born on June 18, 1931, to Raymond Sr and Adellar Perry of Katie, Oklahoma. She attended Wynnewood Elementary Public Schools. She graduated from Lincoln High School in 1953. Roggie is the eldest of eight children. Her parents, three sisters, Nova, Freddie, and Floy; one brother, Cleveland preceded her in death. Her brother Raymond Jr. passed away December 28, 2020.

At an early age Roggie committed her life to Jesus Christ and united with Sweet Home Baptist Church. Later in her life after moving to Oklahoma City Roggie became a member of Antioch Baptist Church where she was a faithful and active member.

Roggie met Melvin L. Fisher and they were married January 21, 1958. This union was blessed with two children, Eva M. Fisher and Alvin D. Fisher. In August 2013 her husband, Melvin preceded her in death.

Roggie was always proud of the uniqueness of her name and proved throughout her life that she was truly one of a kind. Roggie was affectionally called "Aunt Bee" by her nieces and nephews. Roggie loved her family unconditionally.

Roggie enjoyed growing flowers and having a garden, thus keeping a piece of her childhood from their farm. Roggie enjoyed many activities that bonded her family; fishing which she holds the family record for largest bass caught (7 Pounds), going to the movies and the swamp meet.

Roggie's love and devotion spans generations as a daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, aunt, neighbor, friend, and most importantly... Christian.

Roggie leaves to cherish her loving memory one daughter and one son. Eva M. Fisher and Alvin D. (Esther) Fisher, two grandsons, Gavin (Francine) Fisher of Rowland, NC and Christopher Fisher of Fayetteville, NC; four great grandchildren: Keimora Fisher, Zeymere Fisher, Christopher Jr., and Kyler Fisher; two brothers: John (Jenice) Perry of Oklhaoma City and Marvin (Roberta) Perry of Phoenix, Arizona, sister in law, Annie Perry; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

What Mama Took

Most often when we think of Mama
We think of what she's given
The softness of a loving touch,
A gentle guide for living
A nightly tip-toe in a room,
An understanding look
But sometimes when I think of Mama
I think of what she took.
She took her children and taught them how
To live this life with pride
She took those kindergarten tears,
Again kept them inside
She took the hands that long to hold
Her children and not let go
Used them to push her children along
The way to thrive and grow
She took time to do some other things
Like sew and clean and cook
And never thought to ask for thanks
For all the things she took.

Thanks Mama

If Tears Could Build A Stairway
And Memories A Lane
I'd Walk Right Up To Heaven
And Bring You Home Again
We Love You
