Obituary

Daylon “Donnie Do Right a.k.a. Day Day” Jimmerson was born November 3, 1997, in Oklahoma City, OK to Tonya Jimmerson and Davey Mark Jimmerson. Daylon was a strong, loving, compassionate, and very kind hearted man who never missed the opportunity to help others. He was a loving son, brother, uncle and friend. He would go above and beyond for his nieces and nephews buying them any and everything their little hearts desired. Meaning shopping spree at Five Below!!!

He grew up in Fairfield, CA. He was a very curious young boy. He enjoyed playing in creeks, exploring the outdoors and following in his brothers’ footsteps.

He loved playing outside in the nude, running around the corner to Aunt Cherly’s house. He was always being brought back by numerous neighbors. His love for sports started at an early age. He began playing t-ball which led him to his love of basketball. He attended Great Coats Temple. Playing basketball at the Cube is what he enjoyed most. He was a true gamer as well.

He had a passion for activism and civil rights, especially in these trying times in the world today. He also had a great passion for the medical cannabis cultivation.

On January 30, 2021, Daylon was granted his eternal angel wings. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, father, Davey Mark Jimmerson, and his brother, Mark Jimmerson Jr. He leaves to cherish his brothers, David Wilson, Jr., Delante Wilson, and Damerrea Jimmerson; his sisters, Draveena Wilson, Tanaya Wilson, Shaprese Wilson, Marshay Jimmerson, Tiffany Jimmerson, and Joie Black. Daylon had a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
