Obituary

Cornell King was born on March 15, 1941 to Julia Gissandaner in Oklahoma City, OK. He was the oldest boy of six siblings.

Cornell attended high school in Oklahoma City. He accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior early in life.

Cornell departed this life on Saturday, February 13, 2021.

He leaves to remember, his loving wife, Gwendolyn Faye King; three sons: Oneal King, Tyreece King, and Shannon King; one daughter-in-law, Mitra King; two grandchildren, Accalya King and Journey King. He also leaves behind four sisters, one brother, and other relatives and friends.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of foot prints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Thy Kingdom Come

Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil; for thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen
