Obituary

Clemes Branton was born August 22, 1940 in Idabel, Oklahoma to the late Howard and Audgry Branton. He was better known by those who loved him as “Jack”

Jack grew up in rural Idabel and attended Booker T. Washington High. Jack accepted Christ at an early age at Springhill Baptist Church in Idabel, Oklahoma. Jack enjoyed singing God’s praises while playing his guitar.

He was united in Holy Matrimony to Falisha Mashell Branton of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, March 24, 2010. Jack was the proud owner of “Jack’s Lawn Care and Landscaping” in which he retired after over 40 years. His greatest interest was playing his guitar on the front porch. He enjoyed Ministering to the sick and shut in and could often be found at Grace Living Center Nursing Home playing his guitar while singing to the residents.

He is preceded in death by his parents Howard and Audgry Branton, brothers: Clyde Branton, Leroy Branton, Clay Branton; and Stepson Micah Williams. Jack leaves to cherish his memories his wife Falisha Mashell Branton, sisters: Willie Bell Smith of Piedmont, Oklahoma and Dorothy Lucas of Phenix City, Alabama, a host of nieces, nephews and an abundance of friends and loved ones.
