Dear Son

I can't even put into words how I feel right now. I feel lost. I'm asking why me? How could I lose something so precious? Why couldn't I keep you longer? It hurts more and more as the days go by, that I'm no longer with you, to hold you, to give you kisses, to hear your little baby cry, your laugh, and to just be able to watch you grow everyday. You'll always be mamma's blessing. I could go on and on for centuries talking about you and how much I love you. I love you very much son. until we meet again.

Momma

Dear Son

Son with your mother being pregnant I always counted her as two. With all the words there is I still can't put any together to describe what I've felt losing you. Flesh of my flesh, blood of my blood, You were my Prince, my Pride and everything I loved. This is from my soul to the paper writing you this short letter. I hope that every tear that I drop gains you another feather and Son only Lord KNOWS how much I really wish we were together. I love you Noah.

Psalms 91:1-2

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust.

Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair; Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us today.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you dearly whatever part.
