Obituary

On July 9, 1931, a beautiful baby girl was born in Red Bird, Oklahoma to Miles and Eula Oliver. She was named Doris Jean Oliver. Doris attended Miller Washington High School in Red Bird. Doris met and married Harvey Dogans Sr. in 1949. To this union thirteen children were born. The couple and the first of their children lived in Red Bird until Harvey took a job in Tulsa, Oklahoma. The rest of the children were born in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Harvey and Doris moved from Tulsa, Oklahoma to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma in 1991. Harvey passed away in 1992 and Doris remained in Oklahoma City where she was close to her brothers and sisters and four children.

Doris loved her family and always enjoyed traveling to visit her family in the various states that they lived on. She traveled via car or train, Doris was not fond of airplanes at all. Doris made the best peach cobbler and biscuits and gravy, although she would tell anyone that she did not like to cook. Later in life, Doris enjoyed puzzle books and Tyler Perry movies, both of which she would spend the day doing. Doris remained a member at Paradise Baptist Church and attended regularly. She loved going to church and whenever her children and grandchildren were in town they always attended church with her. Doris attended church until she became ill and could no longer attend.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents Miles and Eula Oliver, her husband Harvey Dogans Sr., her daughter Betty Woods, and eight brothers and sisters. Doris leaves behind to mourn her passing two sisters Elva Lois Denmark of Oklahoma City, OK, Opal Scarbough of Oklahoma City, OK; her children and their spouses, Marilyn Lovelace of Oklahoma City, OK, Harvey Dogans Jr. of Oklahoma City, OK, Vernon (Ester) Dogans of Garland, TX, Artis (Larry) Chaney of Tulsa, OK, Glynda Dogans of Tulsa, OK, Levada (Rick) Overton of Redondo Beach, CA, Azail (Carol) Dogans of Dallas, TX, Opal Monday of Tulsa, OK, William (Tosh) of Plano, TX, Michael (Kim) Dogans of Oklahoma City, OK. Doris also leaves behind twenty grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, three great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Safely Home

*I am home in heaven, dear one
Oh so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief are over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remains
You shall rest in Jesus land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!*
