The Life of Linder Delorse Pickens

On September 26, 1967 Linder Delorse Pickens was born to Jeraldine Pickens LaFrae and Lindsay D. Gray. The youngest of thirteen, "Fluffy" as she was known by her mother, was the tenth girl. Born into a family that knew the true meaning of perseverance, dominated by love, Linder was the flame.

A graduate of Ardmore High School. Linder excelled in sports. Not only was she a force to be reckoned with in Track and Basketball, but also in life. After graduating Ardmore High, she moved to the Oklahoma City & Edmond area where she raised her children and met and married the love of her life; Ricardo Gomez. Linder and Ricardo were like two peas in a pod from different cultures and they loved it. Despite speaking two different languages their common language was love. Love of one another. Ricardo was Linder's calm, and she was his Phoenix. The two would fish, thrift shop, go to swap meets and travel. Linder had always discussed traveling around the world, and she was able to fulfill this dream with the love of her life from California, Alabama, Florida, and Missouri to and all places in between. On April 27, 2021, when Linder was called home, she was doing what she loved which was traveling with her husband. She was our world traveler and reporter.

Often referred to as the "life of the party." Her robust personality was infectious. Thick or thin Linder had the back of her family and close friends. When she spoke, laughed, cursed, or said "Hey", everyone knew Linder was in the room. Linder believed in hard work and dedication. She valued loyalty and her family. She was proud of her children, her grandchildren, her niece and nephew's. She made sure to let them know this every opportunity she had to tell them. Linder, spoke often about the artistic ability of her oldest granddaughter, Tiyanna and every chance she got showed off her granddaughter's artwork. Linder believed in GOD, hard work and being self sufficient.

Linder was preceded in death by both parents, two sisters Joanne Pickens and Melissa Ervin and two brothers, Clyde Pickens Johnson, and John T. McCoy, and two sons, Cameron and Anthony Coburn.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her husband, Ricardo Gomez, one son Marcus Maytubby, three daughters Akeia Pickens, Jennifer Pickens, and Marshall Allen; six stepchildren, Anthony, David, Gabe, Jesse, Dustin, and Chris Gomez; five grandchildren, Tiyanna, Tyqwan, Mehlani, Marley, and Jaydan, one brother Eddie Moore; 6 sisters, Earlene Jackson, Cynthia Pickens, Sherry Finley, Velma Pickens, Fern Pickens, Myrtle Lee, and Joyce McGee and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.
