Obituary

Shenell Auvon Marshall was born on October 12, 1980 to Angela Henderson and Ivy Davis, Sr. in Oklahoma City, Ok and was the oldest of five children. She grew up in a family full of love and support. Shenell grew up in Spencer, Oklahoma and graduated from Star Spencer High School in 1999. She married Jaja Marshall in the year of 2003 and to this union were born her three strong children. From an early age, Shenell always had a song in her heart and shared it with everyone. If there was a choir, she was involved. From The Sunshine Band with her family to Wings of Harmony where she played the ArchAngel in the production of "Hell's Fire". She was our song bird and it was a joy and blessing to encounter the melodious sounds of her dulcet voice. She graduated from Oklahoma Beauty College in 2018, which only solicited the skills of her anointed hands which blessed everyone she touched. When you sat in her chair, you emerged beautiful inside and out because her words soothed and healed as she worked her magic. As Shenell would say, "I Grow Hair!" The two friends that walked and talked with her through this stage of life were Mayra Viscaino and Mistie Curtis, who are continuing her work. You would seldomly see Shenell without her Kings and her Princess, Elijah, Samuel, and Naomi. Each one personifies the strength she embodied. On January 12th Shenell departed this world, she leaves to cherish her memory, her children Elijah Marshall, Samuel Marshall, and Naomi Marshall, her mother, Angela Lewis, her father Ivy Davis, her step-father Harold Lewis Sr., her maternal grandmother and BFF, Annie Henderson, her paternal grandmother, Rose Hill, Betty Robinson, her grandmother. Her beloved sisters Corey Caldwell (Andre Caldwell Sr.), Aerial Lewis, Dajona Lewis, and Shenita Valdez, Ivionna, her brothers Harold Lewis Jr. (Shapria Lewis), Ivy Davis Jr, her nephews, Terrence Caldwell, Andre Caldwell Jr., D'Andre Caldwell, Devin Valdez, and Denico Valdez, Harold Lewis III, Josiah Lewis, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
