

Lorraine's Life

Lorraine (Jackson) Danna was born to the proud parents of Reverend Jumbo J. and Elizabeth Jackson in Seminole, Oklahoma. She was the third child of twelve children.

She attended Tallahassee Elementary School and graduated from Douglass High School in Wewoka, Oklahoma, where she played the trumpet in the marching band.

Lorraine relocated to Oklahoma City in 1957. She met and married Eddie Ray Danna, Sr. She was the mother of six children.

She was employed at Biltmore Hotel, Huckins Hotel and retired from the Holiday Inn Hotel. She later became a health care provider where she served the elderly for many years.

Mother Danna was Saved and Filled with the Holy Ghost under the leadership of the late Elder Howard Huggins, II, at Nealy's Temple Church of God in Christ in 1972, which later became Madison Street Church of God in Christ where she served until his demise.

Mother Danna was a loyal, faithful support to her church and pastor. She was appointed church secretary and financial clerk under the leadership of Elder Huggins; where she continued to serve under the leadership of Pastor Harvey Stocker for over thirty (30) years and Sunday School Superintendent for over twenty (20) years, until her health began to fail her. She was a choir member, choir director and a member of the Young Women Christian Council (YWCC), where she served as secretary for a short while. She was the founder of Friends and Family Service at Madison Street COGIC, which was an annual event that grew to be the highest for the Sunday School Department. She also served in the Central District under the late Superintendent Mac Abram as district secretary and worked with the Sunday School Department for many years.
