Obituary

James Wayne Walter, 64, of Oklahoma City, passed away on February 16, 2022. James Wayne Walter was born October 29, 1957 to J.W. and Essie B. Walter.

James attended Northwest Classen High School where he was active in basketball and band, playing the Tuba. He then transferred to Northeast High School and continued on with his love of sports and music. Upon graduation, he entered into the United States Army. After being discharged, James worked at a small diner for several years as a server. He enjoyed doing various tasks such as commercial painting and landscaping with his father.

James was known to be respectful, loving, caring, and kind towards his family. He enjoyed watching sports, listening to gospel music, and reading his Bible.

While James never married, the ladies loved cool James. He was always neat in appearance, and loved to use corn starch for ironing his jeans. He was never without a lady friend, and could cook a great meal.

James loved his family and adored his niece, great niece and nephew.

James is preceded in death by his father, J.W. Walter. James leaves behind to cherish his loving memory, his mother, Essie B. Walter; siblings: Etta Jean Walter-Webber, Gwendolyn J. Walter and Cynthia McKenzie; one niece, Malikah McClenton; husband, Kevin McClenton; one great niece, Kayla Walter and one great nephew, E'Shaun McClenton; two uncles, Isaac Jackson and Johnell Jackson; very special cousins, Howard Walter, Albert Walter and Calvin Walter; and a host of special cousins in Springfield, Missouri.

II Timothy 4:8 (KJV)

"Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing."
