Latorya Sullivan

On April 30, 1985 in Wichita, Kansas, God blessed Steven Eugene and Brenda Faye Castile with their second daughter, Latorya Annette Sullivan.

Latorya and her older sister, April grew up in Oklahoma City, OK where Latorya graduated from Putnam City North High School. Later after attending Francis Tuttle Vo-Tech she began her career as a Certified Nursing Assistant.

Latorya found Christ at an early age and even as she endured living with lupus, her faith was a beacon of light for those around her. Her strength and determination were an inspiration to all those who knew her, is why her sister began lovingly call her "Firecracker."

Known for being small but mighty, Latorya was fiercely protective of her family. She enjoyed spending time with them eating steak and shrimp, going to Wrestle-mania and watching her favorite movie "Their Eyes Were Watching God."

Latorya is preceded in death by her father, Steven Castile; step-father, Lonell Lawrence; grandmother, Emma Jean Donaldson; grandparents, Bennie and Helen Castile; aunt, Julia Snell Taylor; and uncle, Kenneth Fleming Hollis.

She leaves to cherish her memory; her mother, Brenda Castile-Lawrence; two daughters, JaLyn Danna and LaBreil Ezell; one son, Khelan Caldwell; one sister, April Castile; nephew, Samir Carey; along with a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends too numerous to name but yet loved and not forgotten.

Steven Eugene Castile

On January 12, 1957 in Wichita, Kansas, God blessed Bennie and Helen Castile with their second son, Steven Eugene Castile.

“Steve” grew up in Wichita Kansas and accepted Christ at an early age at New Zion Baptist Church, where he also sang in the youth choir.

Steve graduated from East High School where he was All-American in football. Steve then attended Butler County Community College where he continued his formal education.

As a young adult, Steve began working at Boeing with his parents and two brothers. It was during this time Steve met his wife, Brenda and from their union came their daughters, April Michelle and Latorya Annette.

Steve loved spending most of his time with his family watching scary movies and cheering on the Kansas City Chiefs. Known for having a sweet tooth, you could bring out the biggest smile with a slice of lemon cake.

On June 4, 2020, Steve retired from Boeing along with his brothers, Gary and Bennie.

Steven was preceded in death by his daughter, Latorya Sullivan; his parents, Bennie and Helen Castile; his grandparents (paternal) Dontas and Willa Mae Castile; (maternal), George and Ruby Washington.

Steve spent his last days in the comfort of his daughter and grandchildren.

Steven leaves to cherish his memory; his daughter, April Castile; the mother of his children, Brenda Lawrence; his two granddaughters, JaLyn Danna and LaBreil Ezell; two grandsons, Samir Carey and Khelan Caldwell; his two brothers, Bennie Castile, Jr. and Gary Castile; one sister, Tonya Castile; aunt, Imogene Patrick; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends too numerous to name but yet loved and not forgotten.
