Reflections of Life

Janet Cynita Scott was born March 29, 1949 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She was the first born of Velma D. Brannon. For her childhood education, she attended Garden Oaks Elementary. She attended John F. Kennedy for Intermediate education and she graduated from Fredrick Douglas High School in 1966. Shortly after, she started her career at the Oklahoma Tax Commission until her retirement. As a young child, she spent a vast part of her childhood with her loving grandmother, Ethel Butler. It was during this time, Janet received Jesus Christ and began her Christian journey.

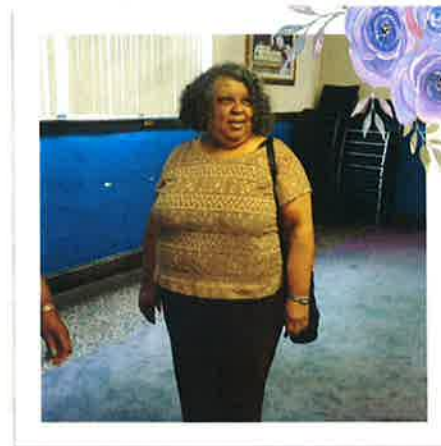

Janet was a devoted mother, grandmother, sister, friend and more. She loved to work crossword in the newspaper and various puzzle books. She was an exceptional speller, fervent reader, and desired everyone to experience reading as passionately as she did. During retirement, she spent many days reading multiple books in a week, writing and studying the word of God.

Janet had an amazing gift to remember birthdays and anniversaries. She had a special way with words and picking cards too. If you were a recipient of one of her cards or letters, you know exactly what I am talking about. In the last 25 years, her service to God and her ministry of encouraging others, sharing wisdom and love has touched many lives. She will be greatly missed.

Janet was preceded in death by her mother, Velma Walker, grandparents, Ethel and Demus Butler, four siblings, Alberta Brannon, Ramona Brannon-Cudjo, Kevin Walker and Chrystal Moten.

She leaves to cherish her memory, her children, Cynita Scott, L.C. Scott III, Jaime Scott, 12 grandchildren, 8 siblings, Anderson Brannon, Ethel Brannon-Salters, Penny Guyton, Anthony Brannon, Debra Walker, Kurtrina Walker, Patricia Moten, Jaime Moten-Hawthorne 2 great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other family and friends.

Janet's Heart

A few things that make my heart sing:

A rainbow reminds me that God's promises are eternal.

The rain reminds me that God can cleanse even the darkest soul.

The sun reminds me that the brightest light is the SON.

Your music reminds me that love shared will never die.

The moon reminds me that my Father never sleeps.

The lightning reminds me that time is running out, it can end with a flash.

The thunder reminds me of God's power no one can contain His voice.

The hail reminds me that the Lake of Fire is eternal torment.

A smile, a hug or a warm touch reminds me that the Living God still reigns; I must pass it on

What reminds you?
