

Obituary

Carl Ramon Brown entered into the world on March 20, 1950, and our Father decided it was time for him to come home on September 15, 2010.

Carl, best known to his friends and family as "Wolf", was the first child of Della Jackson, L.C. and Rosie Brown, and big brother to Anthony R. Jackson, all preceded him in death.

Carl attended and graduated from Douglass High School. He joined the United States Army in May of 1969, and later received an honorable discharge as a testimonial of Honest and Faithful Service. He joined church and received the Lord as his personal Lord and Savior at an early age. He was a member of First Baptist Church in Green Pastures at the time of his death.

Carl was a "Big" people person and loved the challenge of life. Carl was a sports fanatic, and even after losing part of his leg, nothing stopped him from watching and rooting for the Dallas Cowboys on television with his brother, Mac Brown.

He worked various jobs until his health made it impossible for him to continue working.

Carl leaves to celebrate his homegoing his wife, Janice; sons, Carl, II (Kenna), Darrin Thompson Brown, De Juan Thompson Brown; stepsons, Ike E. Foster, II, Antonio, Tyrico and Mario Ligons; stepdaughters, Destiny Foster, Chauntrice Nicole Carter and Nykeyla Ligons, all of Oklahoma City, OK; sisters, Exzetta Cotton (Connie) of California and Carolyn (Lucky) Wilson of Oklahoma City, OK; brother, McKinley Brown, Jr. of Oklahoma City, OK; a special granddaughter, lone Graham; a host of other grandchildren, nieces, nephews, great-grandchildren, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends; and two special friends, and "roommates", Kathy and Alex.
