Ronnie Dean Titsworth, Sr.*

God, in His infinite wisdom, prepared Willie Titsworth and Robert Coulter Sr., for the joy of their life – Ronnie Titsworth – born August 18, 1955. Ronnie was one of fourteen children born to these wonderful parents. Both parents along with four sisters: Barbara Coulter, Valerie Coulter, Joyce Coulter-Scott, and Linda Coulter-Long. Ronnie worked numerous jobs in his life time. He later married Linda Payne.

Don't Grieve For Me

To those I love and those who love me.
When I'm gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You must not tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we have had these years.
I gave you my love - you can only guess
How much you have given me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel on alone
So grieve awhile for me, if you must grieve.
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part. I want be far away.
For life goes on. So if you need me, call and I'll come.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'm near.
And if you listen with your heart, you will hear me.
All of my love around you soft and clear
And then when you must come this way alone.
I'll greet you with a smile, and welcome home.

Angela Billings & Georgetta Stanford
