

Son Shine

Written By Bertina

When I wake up in the morning I look up at the ceiling and I see your SonShine beaming down on me. Your SonShine beaming on me makes me free. I choose to be free. You say free from what? Free makes life exciting to be free from the rule of sickness and disease. I choose freedom liberty from anxiety. Free you say! Free from being broken. I choose to looseness of poverty not being at my throat. Free you say! From domination of my flesh. I choose the SonShine's inner-strength then I won't be weak. When I go to bed at night I look up at the ceiling and see your SonShine beaming on me. It still makes me free.
