Celebration of Life

Jason Marion Harris Jr. was born on January 25, 2003 to Jason M. Harris, Sr. and Tabitha R. Scott in Oklahoma City, OK. He was the second born of two children.

Jason attended Wiley Post Elementary School until the fifth grade. Then he went on to attend Hefner Middle School. He attended Putnum City Original and also he attended John Marshall where he went on to graduate. He went on to work for Blaze Pizza for 3 years. He was currently working for Walmart as a merchandiser up until his death. Jason was very talented with his hands.

Jason had a huge heart. He was loyal, caring, and loved by many. He was a happy person with a big smile. He also was a very handsome young man and had a kind heart. He was the person you would call when you were in need of help.

On the early morning of September 19, 2021 God called Jason's name and he answered.

He's giving spirit, talents, and love will be missed by all.

Jason leaves to cherish his memory, his parents; Jason M. Harris Sr. And Tabitha Scott (Geno), one sister; Jelynn Eddington (Guyton) all of OKC, 2 grandmothers; Frances Briggs Bailey and Brenda Harris, 2 aunts; Brittney Ward of Atlanta, GA, Samantha Scott of OKC, and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles, and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call:
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found my place at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too shall miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.

Perhaps my life seemed all too brief:
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me;
God wanted me now, He set me free.
