

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God laid for me.
 I took His hand when I heard Him call,
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day;
 To laugh, to love, to work or play,
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found that peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with memories of joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 All these things, I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savored much;
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your heart and share with me,
 God wanted me now, He set me free.

Shirley Prim

In Watonga, Oklahoma, Lawrence and Eula Burton became the proud parents of a proud baby girl on February 14, 1942.

Shirley accepted Christ at an early age, and her family moved to Muskogee, where she attended Muskogee Public Schools. Later on in life, she went to Redlands Community College, OU, OSU, where she studied Child Development and a BS degree and received high honors for her outstanding achievement.

Shirley united in Holy Matrimony to Elton Prim on August 16, 1955. To this union four children were born: Debbie Kay, Wayne Eltonio, Shelia Renee and Melva Loraine. She was a devoted wife and mother. Her hobbies were cooking, singing, meeting people and attending her Eastern Star Evergreen Chapter 36 Lodge meetings.

Shirley Prim was famous for her Apple and Peach Cobblers, her Strawberry and Chocolate Sheet Cakes.

She worked for 38 years at Western Electric, AT&T, Lucent and currently Celestica and earned several awards.

Mrs. Prim was a member of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church where she sang in the choir and also was apart of the Community and Damroseh Choirs.

Remaining to lament her death; her daughters: Debbie Simmons (Eddie) of Del City, Oklahoma, Wayne (Yolanda) Prim of Forney, Texas, Shelia Dennis and Melva Grayson, both of El Reno, Oklahoma; sisters: Barbara (Charles) Brooks of Los Angeles, California, Kathleen Mosley and Yoland Orange, both of Spencer, Oklahoma; one brother, Calvin (Regina) Mosley of Spencer, Oklahoma; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, and great-great-great grandchildren; special cousin, Rita Armstrong; and a host of other relatives and friends.

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday,
and the days before that too.
We think of you in silence,
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories,
and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake,
with which we'll never part.
God has you in His keeping,
We have you in our heart.*
