Obituary

Kim Monique Cheatham was born on July 8, 1973 to the late Victor M. Cheatham Sr and Ella Sydnor Cheatham at Down State Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y.

Kim was a member of the Voice of Praise Baptist Church, Oklahoma City, Reverend Tony Wise, Pastor

Kim, her brother and Mother relocated to Oklahoma City for a better life in 1982. Kim graduated from Yukon H. S. Yukon, Oklahoma, then enrolled at Rose State College where she was on the Presidents' list, she later attended Oklahoma State University (OSU Tech) and majored in early childhood development.

As a young adult, Kim was challenged with a plethora of physical illnesses resulting in receiving a bone marrow transplant, she experienced the deadly disease (cancer) three more times resulting in extensive chemotherapy and radiation also diagnosed with diabetes, Congestive heart failure resulting in having a double bypass and receiving a pacemaker and a defibrillator and later her kidneys failed resulting in receiving dialysis three days a week. In spite of the many health challenges Kim was resilient and continued to work until August 2021.

Kim was employed at O.U Medical Center for several years she also worked at the O.U cancer center. (for more information please visit the link on the back about Kim's amazing journey)

Kim leaves to cherish her precious memories, her fiancé', Dewey Beasley; her mother, Ella Sydnor; her brother, Victor Cheatham, Jr. (Dr. Lakeiah) of Wylie, TX; half-sister, Monique Cheatham of Brooklyn, NY; nieces: Imari Scott-Cheatham of Los Angeles, CA, Karington Cheatham and Klarke Cheatham, both of Wylie, TX; nephews, Victor M.
