Obituary

Beloved mother, sister, grandmother, and great grandmother, Letitia Janet Nero died peacefully in her sleep at her Oklahoma City home on November 21, 2021. Born on September 2, 1962, in Oklahoma City Beverly Ann Roney Nero and Clifford Tamplin, Letitia is remembered for her generous spirit and lifelong devotion to her family. Letitia was a dedicated churchgoer and raised her children within the Baptist faith. She loved to dance and filled the family home with music. For several years in the 1980's, the family lived in Wichita, Kansas, returning to Oklahoma in 1992. In later years, Letitia lived with her younger daughter and son, Alisha and Corey, and their days were filled with laughter and various appointments and visits with friends around the city.

Letitia worked for many years as Medical Administrative Assistant and Culinary Chef at nursing homes and assisted living centers in Oklahoma City. As a young woman, she worked as a Greyhound Bus Attendant, traveling around the country and enjoying her adventures. Her travels also involved missionary work and included many church camps for her family around the multi-state region.

Letitia was preceded in death by her son, Kenneth Ray Nero, who died in 2020. She is survived by her three children, Resheedia Nero, Alisha Dawn Naali, and Corey Nero, all of Oklahoma City; daughter-in-law, Kara Nero of Wichita, Kansas; son-in-law, Matle Naali of Oklahoma City; seven sisters, Deborah Washington, Resheedia Thrash, Carlos McDonald (Melvin McDonald), Tonda Nero, Angela Nero, and Martina Johnson; and two brothers, Anthony Dewayne Taylor and Tony Lamar Nero; her grandchildren include Kyree Nero, Kearha Nero, Kazia Nero, Dominique Gray, and Chantelle Hurrt; her great grandchildren are: Adonis Aaron Gray, Elias Aaron Gray, Ja'Koreon, Ja'Marrius and Ja'Nylah.
