Obituary

On July 22, 1913, in Colbert, Oklahoma, a baby girl was born by the name of Roberta Beatrice Knight to Jordon Kalop Knight, Sr. and Lottie B. Gillem Knight. To this union, thirteen children were born: Alberta, Roberta, Maxzelle, Minnie Ester, Rosie, Mack, Charlie, Henry, Jessie, Wendell, Willie, Edward, and Jordon, Jr. Roberta was the second of thirteen children. She was preceded in death by both parents and ten siblings.

Roberta joined church at an early age. She attended school in Colbert, Oklahoma. After high school, she went on to nursing school, where she began working in Denver, Colorado, and on to Phoenix, Arizona. While in Denver, she met and married Oscar Jackson. No children were born to this union. During this time, her husband passed, and Roberta began to travel as a nurse.

After many years, she decided to move to Portland, Oregon to be near her brother, Henry, and later on to Wichita, Kansas to be with her baby sister, Rosie.

On Sunday morning, January 2, 2022, around 9:30 a.m., a death angel whispered to Roberta "come go with me."

She leaves to cherish her memory, one brother, Jordon K. Knight, Jr. of Oklahoma City, OK; one sister, Rosie Hughes of Wichita, Kansas; a host of nephews, nieces, and a special and devoted caregiver, Charles King of Wichita, Kansas.

We all loved you, Roberta, but God loved you best. Rest in peace, your work has been done.
