Obituary

Clenita RaeLynn was born on July 21, 1976 to Amos and Vivian Johnson.

In keeping with her devotion to Christ as a child, Clenita professed her love for Christ and united with Greater New Bethlehem Temple. She was currently a member of The Gate Church, Oklahoma City.

Clenita attended elementary school in Oklahoma City, and high school at John Marshall. After completion of high school, she attended Rose State and City College, majoring in Child Development. Later, she decided to pursue her passion in the health field at ATI Institute, becoming a Medical Assistant. With a greater desire and passion to help others, Clenita decided to move further in the medical field, attending Heritage College and becoming a Surgical Technician. Upon completion, she landed her dream job as a Surgical Technician at Dean A. McGee Eye Surgical Center, Oklahoma City and continued her profession there until the time of her demise.

In 2001, Clenita met the "Love of her life," Shafeeq Islam. The romance continued to marriage in 2003. With that union, they happily raised four children, which she cherished dearly.

Clenita was an Angel on Earth, gracing the life of those that encountered her. She had a great passion for writing poetry, designing and to sing. The Greatest Joy of all was spending time with her family.

Clenita was preceded in death by her father, Amos and mother Vivian. She leaves to cherish her memories, her husband, Shafeeq; son, Qualan (Maggie), granddaughter, Tatum, of Kansas City, Missouri; three daughters: Quasha, Quenesha, Yasmeen,; brother, Sidney L. Myers; sister, Amy Johnson of Houston, Texas; in-laws: Mamsa and Syedah Islam; sister-in-law, Samaiyah Islam; aunts: Sylvia Graham of Atlanta, Georgia; Roberta Jones; uncle, David Jones (Robin); nephews, nieces, cousins, other relatives and friends.

The Deepest Part Of Me

There are many stories untold like balls of fire they explode.
Burning from the inside out
Become gold
Under pressure
Not willing to mold
Into what they think of me or shine the light on who I should be heart of brass to get me pass
All that I see
Hoping for a reflection of what God sees
In me
Oh
How I have tried to be worthy
To bare His name called His child
The deepest part of me
Traveling through time with the wish to unwind the shame of me
Yes it is easy to see
I have belonged to you for eternity
Hope that when I close my eyes it is you I will see
And heaven is where I will spend the rest of my days
Giving you praise
On that day when you come for me a
WELL DONE
My good and faithful servant
are words whispered to me
Able to shout and run about the streets of gold Reciting stories told of how I made it over there will be Because You never gave up on me
And in me a diamond You did see
Thank You Lord for keeping me!
