HYMN

When peace like a river attendeth my way
When sorrows like sea billows roll
Whatever my lot, Thou hast taught me to say
It is well, it is well with my soul

*It is well with my soul
It is well with my soul
It is well, it is well with my soul...refrain*

BIOGRAPHY
OF THE LATE
SOLOMON MOITEI
ADDO

Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like theirs, Numbers 23:10b

The late Solomon Moitei Addo was born on March 18, 1961 in Accra to the late Samuel Adotei Addo and Abigail Adjeley Adjaye both of blessed memory.

Solomon started his elementary education at Gray Memorial Primary School at Adabraka in Accra. Solo, as he was affectionately called, continued his education at AMAMOMO Middle School also at Adabraka, Accra. With his academic capabilities, he sat for the Common Entrance Examinations and gained admission into Odorgono Secondary School in 1977.

Solomon was so industrious and daring that while still in secondary school, he apprenticed himself to a master shoemaker and underwent training in shoemaking. He was very intelligent and gifted and he won the admiration of his master within a few weeks and was adjudged the best apprentice in training. He graduated within three months and set up his own shoe making shop and named it PAA SOLO SHOE SERVICES. One can only say that Solo was gifted in working with leather.

When we heard that you had collapsed at work and been transported to the hospital, it was our fervent prayer to the Lord that you would recover. But it was not to be, as the news of your passing reached us while we were still on the highway rushing to get to you. We have asked the Lord, "Why us? Why Solo?" The only answer we get is, the Lord knows why He has called you to join Him in glory and one day we shall all meet again in the presence of the Lord. What a reunion that will be!

Although our hearts continue to weep and bleed at your passing, we are immensely appreciative to the Almighty God that our family was blessed with a man like you. Our family was better because you were part of us. We will forever keep and cherish you in our hearts, Brother Solo!

May your gentle soul rest peacefully in the arms of Jehovah

I KNOW WHOM I HAVE BELIEVED

1. I know not why God's wondrous grace
To me He hath made known,
Nor why, unworthy, Christ in love
Redeemed me for His own.

Refrain

*But I know Whom I have believed,
And am persuaded that He is able
To keep that which I've committed
Unto Him against that day.*

2. I know not how this saving faith
To me He did impart,
Nor how believing in His Word
Wrought peace within my heart...refrain

3. I know not how the Spirit moves,
Convincing men of sin,
Revealing Jesus through the Word,
Creating faith in Him...refrain

4. I know not when my Lord may come,
At night or noonday fair,
Nor if I'll walk the vale with Him,
Or meet Him in the air...refrain

CAPTAIN OF ISRAEL'S HOST,

1. Captain of Israel's host, and Guide
Of all who seek the land above,
Beneath Thy shadow we abide,
The cloud of Thy protecting love;
Our strength, Thy grace; our rule, Thy Word;
Our end, the glory of the Lord.
2. By Thine unerring Spirit led,
We shall not in the desert stray;
The light of man's direction need
Or miss our providential way;
As far from danger as from fear,
While Love, almighty Love, is near

BE STILL MY SOUL

1. Be still, my soul: the Lord is on thy side; bear patiently the cross of grief or pain; leave to thy God to order and provide; in ev'ry change He faithful will remain. Be still, my soul: thy best, thy heav'nly Friend thro' thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

2. Be still, my soul: thy God doth undertake to guide the future as He has the past. Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake; all now mysterious shall be bright at last. Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know His voice, who ruled them while He dwelt below

3. Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart, and all is darkened in the veil of tears, then shalt thou better know His love, His heart, who comes to soothe thy sorrow and thy fears. Be still, my soul: thy Jesus can repay from His own fullness all He takes away.

4. Be still, my soul: the hour is hast'ning on when we shall be forever with the Lord, when disappointment, grief, and fear are gone, sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored. Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past, all safe and blessed we shall meet at last.

TRIBUTE TO MY LOVING HUSBAND FROM REBECCA ADDO

Passage "The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit"... Psalm 34:18

When God made husbands, as far as I know, he made a special soulmate for me. Solo, as I affectionately called him, was a man with a heart of gold. He was compassionate, loving and very kind.

He met me one sunny afternoon at Official Town (Accra) and used the cliché line on me, saying, "Hello madam, you look very familiar." I turned around and saw a fine gentleman staring at me. My heart skipped a beat. Our love story blossomed from that day onwards.

We were married September 25th, 2011, at Gospel Ambassadors Church at Lapaz-Accra. It was a joyous day with all our friends and families.

I relocated to the United State on September 28, 2018, and that was when married life really began for me. As in every marriage relationship, we had our ups and downs. Solo loved me unconditionally. He was my eyes, ears, legs and my all.

If anyone ever told me that I would be paying tribute to my beloved husband today, I would have said it was a big lie. Considering that we spoke that morning, packed his lunch, hugged each other as we said our goodbyes. He called me on his way to work, we spoke before he arrived at work only to be told an hour later that my husband was no more!! Is this a dream? Can someone please wake me up!!

Solo, my husband, I miss your warmth, I miss your strength, I miss your lovely smile. I wish I could see your face again, even for a little while.

Thank you for your devoted love that helps me through each day and for all the precious memories that will never fade away. The fact that you are no longer here will always cause me pain, but you are forever in my heart.

Solo, who will I bother? Who will keep me company? Who will drive me around?

Ah! Ah! Ah! Solo, my heart is bleeding. Solo, my heart is broken. Your death has shown me that death is a mysterious reality with total disrespect for an appointment. It just descends at the time it chooses without any announcement.

What can I say? God knows best!

God needs you more in heaven for higher services.

Rest Well my love until we meet again.

Fare Thee Well

Solo, yaa wo ojogban

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE MR. SOLOMON MOTEI ADDO

FROM THE CHURCH OF PENTECOST, USA INC. – OKLAHOMA DISTRICT

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed." Revelations 21:4

The late Mr. Solomon Addo was a member of The Church of Pentecost, Oklahoma District, Oklahoma City Assembly. He was invited to the church by his good friend Mr. Hiskia Achirobo during a church program in 2015. Mr. Addo dedicated his life to Christ and became a member of the Church later that year. He frequently followed Mr. Achirobo to church and was later baptized in the summer of 2016 by Rev. Augustine Owusu Bediako.

We remember Mr. Addo to be quiet, calm and yet passionate during conversations about spiritual matters. Before his wife joined him here in the United States, every conversation with him started with "I can't wait to have my wife here". He was overjoyed when Sister Rebecca arrived and proudly introduced her to the church. His love for his wife, Sister Rebecca was constant.

Although their church attendance was impacted by the pandemic, they continued to attend church occasionally and remained in contact with leadership and some members until his sudden departure on January 20, 2022. Rev. Yaw Adade Tabi recalls his recent call to Mr. Solo and Sister Rebecca and his last visit to their residence.

The news of his passing was a shock and brought us sadness, but we are consoled by the fact that our absence in the body is presence with the Lord.

The leadership and members of The Church of Pentecost Oklahoma District bid thee farewell, Brother Solo!

May our Almighty God keep you till we meet again.
Rest in Peace! Yaawo jogbann!

MY FAITH LOOKS UP TO THEE

1. My faith looks up to thee
Thou Lamb of Calvary
Savior divine!

Now hear me while I pray
Take all my guilt away
O let me from this day
Be wholly thine!

2. May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart
My zeal inspire!
As thou hast died for me
O may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be
A living fire!

3. When life's dark maze I tread
And griefs around me spread
Be thou my guide
Bid darkness turn to day
Wipe sorrow's tears away
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside

4. When ends life's transient dream
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll
Blest Savior, then in love
Fear and distrust remove
O bear me safe above
A ransomed soul!

TRIBUTE FROM BROTHERS

Earon, Carlaus, James, Joshua

I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me, will live, even though they die and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. John 11:25-26.

Paa Solo, as he was affectionately called, was the ninth of eleven children, all boys, and the fourth of five surviving children until his untimely death. Paa Solo made himself accessible to everyone and always participated in all family and community activities. He was a brother who was loving, caring and full of integrity.

He was by a long measure the ideal son and the kind of brother anyone would be fortunate to have. His quiet demeanor and heart-warming smile will be sorely missed. The vacuum his passing has created can only be filled by the comfort of our heavenly Father.

Solomon Moitei Addo, also known as Pilee, which means conscience, dearly loved his brothers, nieces, and nephews and all those he met.

He was always ready to lend a helping hand whenever needed. He was truly selfless and was always present to support his extended family in any manner no matter what the situation was.

In fact, Solo had arranged for the brothers to meet on 01/20/2022, the day of his untimely death, to discuss a matter of donation to be sent to our nephews and nieces in Ghana. Our brother had a heart of gold. His generosity knew no bounds and for this we are grateful.

Paa Solo travelled to Nigeria to look for greener pastures in 1980. His stay was short, because after securing sophisticated tools and equipment for his craft, he returned to Accra to expand his business with many apprentices under his supervision.

Paa Solo left Ghana on December 31st, 2006, for the United States of America with the inspiration of his brother, Carlaus. Solo later went back to Ghana and married his beloved wife, Rebecca Addo, on September 28, 2011, at The Gospel Ambassadors Church at Lapaz-Accra. She later joined him in Oklahoma City in 2018.

Paa Solo having been raised in a Christian home and a believer in Christ continued his spiritual journey by worshiping with Praise Church and later the Church of Pentecost, both in Oklahoma City.

Paa Solo worked with the Norman Regional Health System in the Nutrition Services Department for seven years through the help of Mr. Eric Ayisi. In 2014, he was employed by A. T. C. Drive Train as a Technician II, a job he held until his untimely death on January 20th, 2022.

He is survived by his lovely wife, Rebecca Addo, four brothers, Earon, Carlaus, James and Joshua. He also leaves behind numerous aunties, nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends to mourn him.

May his soul rest in perfect peace until we all meet again.
