

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
 I'm following the path God has laid, you see.
 I took His hand when I heard His call.
 I turned my back and left it all.
 I could not stay another day,
 To laugh, to love, to work or play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way,
 I found the peace at the close of day.
 If my parting has left a void,
 Then fill it with remembered joys.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
 Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I've savored much,
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
 God wanted me now,
 He set me free.

Obituary

Brother Leonard Mardell Railroad was born the second child of three siblings. He was born March 27, 1973. He departed this life on January 18, 2022.

Leonard Mardell Railback accepted Christ at an early age at Seventh Day-Adventist Church in Oklahoma City. Brother Mardell Railback was always happy, smiling, very loving and giving to everybody. He was very smart in math, the state would always come to the house giving him math tests, and paying him. He went back to school to get his GED.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Tamika Railback; his father, Leonard D. Railback; mother, Diane McGlory; his two sisters, LaVonda Railback and Torrie McGlory; his aunt, Maxine McGlory (preceded him in death 2009); his aunts, Loretta McGlory, Helen Railback and an uncle, Donnie railback; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousin, Yancey Douglas, and friends.
