Obituary

Tamia Lashon Thomas age 23, affectionately known as TT, Mia, or Chocolate Drop, was born to Tamela Thomas and Anthony Crooks on August 27, 1998 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Tamia was a respectable, outspoken, intelligent, dedicated, classy, diva who's supportive, loyal, & genuine heart touched many people in their crossing. Tamia was always goofy and nurturing towards her loved ones. Tamia was a shopaholic, a fashionista. Tamia had a laugh that would fill up the room and she sung like she could carry a tune.

Graduating from Centennial High School, Tamia was on the road to success with her nursing degree. Through her years, Tamia had 3 beautiful children with George Williams; Karson, Kenslee, & Kameron Kyrie Williams. Raised by her grandmother Faye Thomas whom Tamia loved more than words could fathom along with Emerson Thomas. Tamia used her influence from her family to be a loving & caring woman, always giving her time to others, that she incorporated into her motherhood.

She leaves to cherish her homecoming; her children; her father, Anthony Crooks, her three brothers, Devante Thomas, Lee Thomas, and Ashton Lapkin; her two sisters, Jasmine Thomas and Dyshone Smith; four nieces Taliha Thomas, Naomi Dozier, Memori Smith, and Ailey Brazille; four nephews, Kadan Thomas, Devonte Jr Thomas, Lee Jr Thomas, and Prynce Smith. A host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Tamia goes on to join her mother Tamela Thomas and friend Rashya long in peace and harmony.
