

The Woman I Am

The links of courage
Made a chain
That cannot be broken...
The hands that made
Each golden link
Left me a priceless token.

My heritage has been the shield
That kept me strong and free...
The woman that I am today
Now walks victoriously.

GEORGIANA Morrison

Georgiana Morrison was born April 14, 1937 to Hazel Brooks and George Morrison in Coalgate, Oklahoma. Georgiana was one of 10 siblings.

Georgiana accepted Christ at an early age and found homage at Greater Praise Baptist Church. While enjoying her time in the House of the Lord, she was a prayer warrior and loved ordering and assisting. She was a part of the citywide ushers in 2007 at the 63rd Simultaneous Revival.

Georgiana Morrison a.k.a. "Big Momma" was a sweet loving lady. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends and loved to cook. Even in her early years, she was known as a very elegant woman. Big mama was a proud woman and through her 87 years she lived as so. While raising her daughter Stephanie Morrison, she worked devotedly as a housekeeper at the downtown Sheraton Hotel of Oklahoma City. In her free time she loved family get togethers, reading and playing cards. She would beat the whole family in spades with class, while receiving her Trophy.

Georgiana is preceded in death by her parents: Hazel Brooks and George Morrison; three sisters: Dorothy Poteet, Pearl Richardson, Shirley Ainsworth; two great grandsons: Diallo Morrison-Dial and Dominique Harrison, and one son in law: Ira Williamson.

She leaves to cherish her memory one daughter: Stephanie Morrison; two adopted sons: Alan blaylock and Roosevelt Rollins; five sisters: Rose Randle, Barbara McGuire of Sweetwater, TX, Regina Thomas of Abilene, TX, Nadine Walker of Paducah, TX; one brother: Charles Harris of Paducah, TX and five beautiful generations of children, her Jeltz Family, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who love her and will miss her dearly.
