IN LOVING MEMORY

Frank Earl McCarrell, Sr.

A Time To Be Born:

Frank Earl McCarrell, Sr. was born in Boley, Oklahoma to Alfred and Lillie McCarrell on May 7, 1940, he was the seventh of eight children.

A Time To Embrace:

Frank spent his early years in Boley, Oklahoma. He attended Boley Public School. He joined the Army Reserves while in high school. After graduating high school, Frank went off to war. He received an honorable discharge.

A Time To Plant:

Frank had three sons; Frank Jr., Victor and Anthony McCarrell; three daughters; Tracy Fitzgerald, Debra McCarrell and Roxanna McCarrell all of Oklahoma City. Frank was a great father and grandfather.

A Time To Build:

Frank accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Lord and Savior. Frank worked in many fields before beginning to work with the Oklahoma City Public School until his retirement. Frank also became an ordained minister. Frank was a carpenter and a farmer. Frank loved to hunt and fish but his heart was going fishing and praising God.

A Time To Die:

The Lord called Frank home on April 18, 2022. He is preceded in death by his father, mother, two sons; Frank Jr. and Victor McCarrell; two sisters, three brothers and 2nd wife, Rosanna McCarrell.

He leaves to cherish his memory; 1st wife, Sheri Flowal; three daughters, Tracy (William) Fitzgerald, Debra McCarrell and Roxanna McCarrell; four sons, Anthony McCarrell, James LuGrand, Dennis Morgan, Marcus Parker; one sister, Cleo Ladd; one brother, Richard McCarrell; a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends.
