Obituary

Brock Hill was born January 17, 1969 in Brinkley, Arkansas to Geneva Hill. Brock was her one and only beloved child.

Brock attended Truevine Baptist Church in Spencer Oklahoma under the leadership of Reverend H.A. Walker.

In 1971 Brocks mother (Gee, as she was called) relocated them to St. Louis, Missouri where they were surrounded by loving family of six Gee's eleven siblings had moved to the area. He enjoyed elementary school there as well as family. In 1976 he and Gee relocated again, this time to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma where two more of Gee's siblings resided. In OKC, Brock became the "big cousin" who led his younger cousins on mini-adventures around his neighborhood. He continued his education in OKC where he proudly became a Douglass Trojan, however, he graduated from Ulysses S. Grant High School after they moved out of the Frederick Douglass High School district. After graduation, Brock enlisted in the National Guard of the United States Army Reserves. While in the military, he received numerous awards for his service stateside (during Hurricane Katrina) as well as overseas (during operation Iraqi Freedom). After serving 20 years in the military, the artillery sergeant decided to enjoy the comforts of civilian life. Always the avid sports fan, he caught as many Tulsa Hurricane games in person as he possibly could. He worked as an HVAC technician with the International Environmental Corporation in Oklahoma City, OK until his health issues forced him into to true retirement.

Brock was proceeding death by his mother Geneva. He leaves behind to cherish his memory a host of relatives and friends.

No Tears In Heaven

There are no tears in Heaven,
Nor grief of any kind.

I leave this final teardrop to those I've left behind.

Though absent from the body,
I'm present with the Lord;

The joy of my salvation
Is now my full reward.

And just as God has promised.

He's wiped my tears away,
Nothing can compare to the wonder

Of that day so keep me

In your memory and know that

Up above there are no tears in Heaven,

Instead there's only Love
