OBITUARY

Tyler L. Douglas was born August 22, 1974 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He was the third child of three children born to Marilyn and T.J. Douglas. By the end of 1975, the Douglas family moved to Watonga, OK where he lived and attended school, graduating from Watonga High School in 1992.

He continued to date his High School sweetheart Keneise Johnson and on November 8, 2004 Terrance J. Douglas was born. Tyler began his career in the food services industry, ending as a lead chef for Steak and Ale until 2008. Tyler began a new career with Purina, Oklahoma City as a forklift driver where he worked until his death. Tyler publicly confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and Saviour with his parents and siblings at the Watonga First Church of the Nazarene in May of 1984.

Tyler passed away on July 5, 2022 at the age of 48 in Midwest City, Oklahoma. He was preceded in death by his mother Marilyn and his brother Howard Douglas. He is survived by his father T.J. Douglas of Midwest City, OK, his son Terrance J. Douglas of Oklahoma City, OK, his brother Robbie Douglas and wife Cindy of Land O' Lakes, FL, his sister Felicia Dorsey of Midwest City, OK, and his brother Ray Douglas of Oklahoma City, OK; four nieces and nephews Raenita Douglas of Tulsa, OK, Ray Douglas, JR of Oklahoma City, OK, Alexander Douglas of Lafayette, LA, and Dakota Douglas of Land O' Lakes, FL; his lifelong friend CJ Jenkins, his girlfriend Euva Brown and a host of other relatives and friends.

The family wishes to express their sincere gratitude for the many acts of kindness and expressions of sympathy during their time of bereavement.
