LIFE JOURNEY

Clifford Oliver Looney Jr. was born on December 27, 1946 in Oklahoma City, OK to Clifford and Sadie Looney. He was the oldest of eight children. He loved sports and played basketball, baseball, football and ran track. He was nicknamed "Boomer" due to his lightning speed and his fascination with his things that go "boom". In baseball he was one of the few great left-handed pitchers. He graduated from Jones High School as an outstanding football player and received a football scholarship to Cameron University. He left Cameron early to join the U.S. Air Force, where he was deployed for two tours in Vietnam. He later graduated from Central State, now the University of Central Oklahoma with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting with a minor in Computer Science as well as a Master of Business Administration. He began his Christian ministry at Bodine Baptist Church and later became a long-time minister of First Baptist Church of Green Pastures. He was a loving father, grandfather, brother, uncle, coach, friend and much more to so many.

He was happily married to his wife, Daisy Looney of 44 years. Their journey began in 1963 when they met and became best friends. After years of friendship Clifford expressed to Daisy that she was the love of his life. On July 1, 1978, Clifford and Daisy were married. Together they had four children.

Clifford retired in 1998 as an internal auditor from Kerr McGee Corporation. He was well-known for his love of bowling, teaching advanced Sunday school, teaching junior achievement classes to public school students, coaching the legendary basketball team "Ponies", soccer team "MWC Stars", and track team "OKC Blazers".

He was preceded in death by both parents: Clifford and Sadie Looney; brother: Clyde Looney; sister: Vernell Looney; niece: Kimberly Walker; grandson: Daveon Bain-Looney.

He leaves to cherish his memory his wife: Daisy Looney; son: Clifford Looney III; daughters: Cherri Maxwell, Charmalet Williams, Cayla Looney and Taniya Looney; brother: Carl Looney; sisters: Glenda Love, Gwen Jordan, Doris Johnson and Ramona Haggins; grandchildren: Alecia Looney, Delona Looney, Maurice Williams Jr., Genesis Hillard, Olivia Looney, Clifford Looney IV and Cora Looney; nephews: Keith Johnson, Steven Looney, James A. Love and Stanley Johnson Jr.; nieces: Michelle Lily, Lolietta Looney, Leslie Jordan Garzia, Sandra Booker, Eleisa Jordan, Sadetre Love, Jackee Looney, Jalisa Haggins and BreAwn Haggins; a host of other relative and friends.

TRIBUTE FROM SIBLINGS

We saw you, Big Brother...
As you ran your race, keeping a steady pace in life, you were a strong dad to your children and loving husband to your wife.
We saw how you studied God's Word, proclaiming His Holy name, while raising your children and grandchildren, teaching them to do the same.
You loved to coach and teach and guide young lives to be their personal best, to chase their dreams, abide in the Word of the Lord and be steadfast.
Your labor was not in vain for your family is blessed with abundance, love, and joy.
When we think of you, we smile and our hearts rejoice.
So, you persevered; you fought the good fight and crossed the finish line of glory.
Congratulations, Big Brother. We're here today to applaud your earthly story.
Praise God! Our faith assures us that our belief in Jesus will reunite us one day.
For we who believe in Christ, though we will die, yet shall we live. Hallelujah! Jesus is the way.
*Until we meet again,
Glenda, Gwen, Doris, Carl & Ramona*
