Obituary

*I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith:
II Timothy 4:7*

Frank Dean, Jr. was born February 2, 1935 to Frank Dean, Sr. and Alberta (Jones) Dean in Hendrix, Oklahoma. He was the third of twelve children born to this union. The family moved from Colbert, Oklahoma to Oklahoma City where he grew up and attended Oklahoma City Public Schools.

After moving to Oklahoma City, Frank met and married Martha Caldwell. To this union one son was born, Darrell Dean.

Frank worked for many years for Browns Manufacturing Company and Lee Way Trucking Company. He eventually became an independent semi driver and traveled all over the United States. For eleven of his many years of driving, Frank had the opportunity of driving as "Frank and Son" with his son Darrell Dean. During his trucking days, he had many interesting and funny stories he loved sharing.

Frank accepted Christ and united with the Church of the Living God, CWFF, Temple 39 where he was a faithful member for many years. He later transferred his membership to the Church of the Living God, CWFF, Temple 234, Frank was a dedicated, faithful member. He was an Ordained Deacon, faithful Sunday School member and Bible Study student. He loved working in many capacities of the church, especially on the church project of distributing Christmas Baskets to those in need.

In his younger day, Frank loved playing Sandlot Baseball, Centerfield was HIS position. He enjoyed shooting pool and riding his motorcycle with his buddies. He loved to talk and nobody loved a good discussion more than Frank. And better yet, a good debate was truly his specialty. He loved sports, and his favorite team was the Nebraska Cornhuskers. To Frank, there was no better team on earth.

Junior, "June Bug", Uncle Junior, as he was so lovingly called by his family, loved his family and friends. He had a special relationship with each and every one of his siblings. He loved each and every one of his nieces and nephews and supported them in many of their endeavors. He is truly going to be missed by all.

Frank Dean, Jr., is truly going to be missed. He is preceded in death by his wife Martha Dean, parents, Frank and Evangelist Alberta Dean; three brothers: Willard Dean, Arnel Dean and Lonell Dean; one sister, Evangelist Mae Lois Jones.

He leaves to cherish his memories, two sons: Darrell Dean (Cheryl) and Allen Jenkins; two brothers: Elder Kenneth Dean (Diann) of Oklahoma City and Wayne Dean (Barbara) of Atoka, Oklahoma; five sisters: Merline Long, Evangelist Davetta Stafford and Evangelist Wanda McNeal (Al) of Oklahoma City, Irene Hannon (Thomas) of Choctaw, Oklahoma, and Evangelist Sandra Austin (Kelly) of DeSota, Texas; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
to laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with memories of joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts, and peace to thee.
God wanted me now,
He set me free.
