Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much,
Whatever the part.

We would love to thank the Hospice caregivers, and Shannon Holcomb. A special thank you to Pastor Anderson and the members of Evangelistic Baptist Church of Christ.

In His Hands Eternally

Dorothy Lee Bell was born on August 3, 1929 to Julius Bell and Jessie Mae Bell in Bryan, Texas. She attended schools in Bryan and graduated from Kemp High School in May 1947.

Dorothy gave her life to the Lord and was a member of Shiloh Baptist Church until she moved to Oklahoma City after graduating from high school. Dorothy continued her education at Metro-Tech, received certificates for Home Health.

Dorothy came to Oklahoma City and stayed with her aunt, Helen Miles and met her first husband, Earl N. Tyson, who preceded her in death, and to this union were five children. In 1956, Dorothy met and married Otis Scott, Sr. a widower, with one son, and with this union were five children. The families were joined together as one, and was blessed. Otis passed after 47 years of marriage in February 2005.

Dorothy united with the Church of God (W.H.P.W.H.O.B.) in 1957 at 507 North Rhode Island, under the pastorate of the late Chief Bishop Wm. J. Fizer. She was a faithful Sunday School Teacher, Missionary, an excellent Secretary. She served faithfully in the Nursing Home Ministry, visiting the sick and shut-in and served in the Food Ministry, prepared in the dining hall. Dorothy opened her home to anyone needing a hot home-cooked meal, and a bed to lay in, and there was always enough room for all. She was a faithful and dutiful member until 2007. In 2009, she began to serve under Pastor Robert Freeman, Great Getsamene Church, after his passing Pastor Reuben Tyson became pastor. Dorothy served faithfully until her health failed, she was dutiful in all she did for the church; whether it was hospitality, saying words of welcome or even a response to the welcome.

Dorothy was a housewife for many years, she worked in many capacities; Domestic worker for the Penningtons, head Chef for Shepherd Manor Retirement Home for many years. Dorothy became caregiver for Mr. Harold Ginden until she retired.

Dorothy's favorite past time was praying for her family, reading her devotion daily, watching TBN and Daystar; cooking and baking was something she loved and blessing others with her meals; Food Network was one of her shows she loved watching The Kitchen and Ree Drummond, and also HGTV, gave her ideas.

Dorothy spent her retirement years traveling to California to visit her daughter and serving in the ministry with her daughter at Robbins Memorial Church of God in Christ and Livingway-Fontana (Calvary Chapel). She had many sons and daughters in California who loved sitting at her feet and listening to her Godly wisdom. While visiting California, she was asked to be a guest speaker at Robbins Memorial Annual Women's Day, Pastor Emmanuel and First Lady Pauline Collins. She was so honored to speak, and served to pour out in so many, whenever she traveled and the anointing of the Lord was upon her.

Even during her last day of sickness, on this side of heaven, she ministered to her children to prepare them for transitioning. She even prayed and gave words of wisdom to her caretakers, Dr.'s, nurses, until her last breath.

The family will always remember Dorothy's favorite saying, "I'm not complaining, I'm just explaining."

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, Julius and Jessie Bell; husbands, Earl N. Tyson and Otis Scott, Sr.; sisters: Myrtle B. Taylor and Millie Ann Bell; brothers: Willard Bell, Sr., Ruben Bell, and Daniel Bell; daughter, Lorene E. Scott. On September 17, 2022, Dorothy made her transition. She leaves to cherish her legacy, spirit and loving memory, her loving sons: Otis Scott, Jr. (Christeina), Chandler, OK; Overseer Reuben Tyson (Annie), Charles H. Tyson (Ruthie), and Walter W. Scott, II (Joyce), all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; daughters: Delores June Cobb, Sharon F. Martin (Earlye Ray, deceased), Oklahoma City, OK, Earlene L. Ola, Kellyville, OK, Lillie D. Johnson, Fontana, CA, Jessie M. Scott, Phyllis A. Scott, Oklahoma City, OK; twenty-two grandchildren, thirty-four great grandchildren, twelve great-great grandchildren; a multitude of nieces, nephews, cherished friend like a sister, Maxine Borders; and a host of relatives and friends; her special son in the gospel, Deacon Delbert Johnson.

She Shall Be Praised

Proverbs 31:10 & 25-31

A wife of noble character who can find?

She is worth far more than rubies.

She is clothed with strength and dignity

She can laugh at the days to come.

She speaks with wisdom and faithful

Instruction is on her tongue.

She watches over the affairs of her household

And does not eat the bread of idleness.

Her children arise and call her blessed;

Her husband also, and praises her:

"Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all."

Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;

But a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

Honour her for all that her hands have done,

And let her world bring her praise at the city gate.
