Acknowledgements
 The family of Dennis C. Peacock would like to thank each of you for your acts of kindness.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so, we saw it there.
 Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
 Whatever you did to console the hearts,
 We thank you so much, whatever the part.

Dennis Clay Peacock

On Monday, November 14, 2022, Dennis Clay Peacock, loving husband and father, passed away at age sixty-three in O'Fallon, Mo. Dennis was born on October 18, 1959 in Clinton, Oklahoma. He was son to Stella (White) and William Peacock. Though Dennis moved around and lived in several places while growing up, he graduated high school at Burns Flat High School. He prided himself on being physically active by playing basketball and running track as a young man. Dennis attended the University of Central Oklahoma (Central State) in Edmond, Oklahoma and received his Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry. Dennis was a proud member of the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity. During his time in college and after, he was committed to being the definition of a "Sigma Man". He was known to many as "Doc" since he originally went to school to be a doctor. However, organic chemistry and he never quite came to a mutual agreement. Putting his love for chemistry and his outgoing personality together, Dennis was approached about going into Pharmaceutical Sales straight out of college. Dennis served professionally in the pharmaceutical industry for almost 40 years; working with Up John Pharmaceuticals and Bristol-Myers Squibb.

Dennis met and fell in love with Delcencia "Chris" during his late 20s. Together they traveled all over the world and built a family, life and home full of love. He loved Chris' cooking, golf, watching football and spending time with his family. He was loved and admired by many as a mentor and friend.

Dennis was best known for his quick-witted humor, fierce determination, and generous spirit. Dennis was preceded in death by his infant son, Devin Peacock, his grandmother Eula Mae Harrison, as well as his niece Paris Henry. Dennis leaves to cherish his memory his beloved wife of 35 years, Delcencia "Chris" Peacock, son Dion, and daughter Denia Moore (Dorian). He is also survived by his parents, Stella and William Peacock and his siblings: Vickey White, Paul Wilcots, Ramona "Jean" McPherson, Reginald Peacock (Darby), Tangela Benton (Scott) and Barbara Peacock (Diana Manes) and several nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends. Forever remembered and never forgotten.
