Please drive with your lights on for safety and fasten your seat belts.

*Fear thou not: for I am with thee; be not dismayed: for I am thy God:
I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee: yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness.*

Isaiah 41:10

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair;
Perhaps you sent a floral spray, if so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say;
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Celebration Of Life

"For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand." II Timothy 4:6

Betty Robinson was born on May 13, 1940, to William R. and Lavania Grundy in Henryetta, Oklahoma. She was the seventh child of ten children. She was preceded in death by her husband, Curtis Robinson, parents, four brothers, William Grundy, Jr., Tulsa, OK, Anthony Warren Grundy, Vietnam, Robert Grundy, Clearview, OK, and Timothy Grundy, Oklahoma City, OK; four sisters, Doris Jordan, Tulsa, OK, Mary Graham, Oklahoma City, OK, Elvira Grundy (Deceased at birth), Charlesetta Bostic, Oklahoma City, OK, one granddaughter, Shenell Marshall, one great grandson, Cameron Lewis, and two stepchildren, JoAnn Lee and Marion Robinson.

Betty attended Rosewall High School for 10 years. She then integrated into Henryetta High School where she was the only black graduate out of 150 students. AIN'T GOD GOOD!

Because her father was a Pastor, she always attended church. She became a Sunday School Secretary at the age of nine. Later, she became a Sunday School Teacher and Choir member.

After moving to Oklahoma City, she attended Evangelistic Center Church, Reverend J.R. Sapp, Pastor, and served in various auxiliaries. She moved to Kansas City, Kansas and joined the Mt. Carmel COGIC family under the leadership of Pastor E.D. Wilson as YPWW President and Sunday School Teacher. After the death of Pastor Wilson, she continued to serve under the leadership of Pastor Ervin Sims, Jr., as YPWW President, Auxiliary Directors, YWCC President, and Choir member.

She later united with the Pentecost Church of Jesus Christ, Inc. in Spencer, Oklahoma, under the leadership of Elder Harold D. Lewis, Sr., where she served as Secretary. She was a willing servant and always anxious to do God's will. Most of all, she loved to praise God.

She leaves in God's care to cherish her memory, her church family; son, Harold Lewis, Sr. (Angela); grandchildren: Corey Caldwell (Andre), Harold Lewis, Jr. (Shapria), Aerial Lewis (Montrell), Dajona Lewis; great grandchildren: Elijah, Terrence, Andre Jr., DeAndre, Naomi, Montrell Jr., Harold Lewis, III, and Josiah; brothers: Alpheus Grundy of Clearview, Oklahoma; stepchildren: Leon Robinson (Marcia), Vernia Robinson (McCluney), Brenda Huffman, Reletta Robinson of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an after glow of smiles
when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways;
of happy times and laughing
times and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun.

Of happy memories that
I leave when life is done.

MY WIFE,

You were a loving wife, a gentle companion who handled everything so efficiently and effectively. You helped me walk this journey of life more valiantly. I will forever be thankful to God for having blessed me with such a precious gift. We shared our last moments of life together as tenderly as our beginning; holding hands, praying and providing comfort. For that I am grateful.

Your Loving Husband,
Curtis
