Acknowledgment

A friendly smile,
a casual touch,
These are the things
that mean so much.

To know you are with us
in our time of sorrow,
Sharing our prayers,
today and tomorrow.

God give us the comfort
in the form of good friends
May His peace be with you,
His love never ends.

Obituary

Linda Harrison was born on December 9th, 1955 to Verdie Mae Henson and Isom Fulsom in Hugo, Oklahoma. She was the seventh of eight children. She was preceded in death by her husband James L. Harrison, her father Isom Fulsom, four brothers: Ocie Fulsom, Michael Fulsom, and Larry Franklin, along with her sister, Joyce Ann. She is survived by her mother, and two sisters: Rita J. Maxwell and Henrietta J. McClellan.

Affectionately called Ms. Lynn by family and friends alike, she attended Northeast High School in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Oscar Rose Community College of Midwest City, Oklahoma. In her professional career, Lynn worked diligently earning the prestigious titles of Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and Certified Medical Assistant (CMA). Her dedication to service and community confirmed her commitment to living a life according to her purpose.

In retirement, Ms. Lynn served as a part-time associate with Walmart keeping shelves tidy and fully stocked, greeting customers with a dynamic smile, while enhancing their shopping experience.

She leaves in God's care to celebrate her memory, her beloved children: Carlton E. Lewis, Kermit M.L. Webb, and MaKeysha B. (Marvin) Atkins; together with numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and friends; with her two best friends Precious and Tango counted among them.

She will be loved and missed, yet we will see her again.

If You Could See Me Now

*If you could see me now, you wouldn't shed a tear,
Though you may not understand why I'm no longer here,
Remember my spirit, that's the real me.
I'm still very much alive, oh, if you could only see!
I've beheld our Father's face.
I've touched my Savior's Hand.
The angels all rejoiced as I entered the Promise Land.
Beyond the gates of pearl, I walk on golden streets,
I've touched the walls of jasper,
dipped my foot in the crystal sea.
The beauty is beyond words, nothing can compare.
I've even seen your mansion, someday I will meet you there.
Allow Jesus to be your guide, His word will show you the way.
So, please don't cry! We will meet again someday!*
