

Safe In God's Keeping

I am Home in Heaven, dear ones.

Oh! So happy and so bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty

In this Everlasting Light.

All the pain and grief are over;

Every restless yearning past.

I am now at peace forever,

Safely Home in Heaven at last.

Dear ones, do not grieve so sorely,

For I love you dearly still;

Try to look beyond earth's shadows,

Pray to trust Our Father's Will.

When your work is all completed,

He will gently call you Home.

Oh! The rapture of that meeting!

Oh! The joy to see you come!

Obituary

Nathaniel Brown, Sr. was born April 14, 1935 to John Adam and Judah Bates-Brown in Charleston, South Carolina. He was the middle child of three children. He graduated from high school in Charleston, South Carolina.

Nathaniel was united to Gussie V. Williams-Brown in Holy Matrimony on September 4, 1958 in Texas. From this union they had two daughters, Teresa Smith and Faleshia Brown. They also had two sons, Nathaniel Brown, Jr. and Javier Brown.

Nathaniel joined the United States Air Force. While in the Air Force, he was an Air Traffic Controller. Nathaniel retired from Oak Tree Golf and Country Club, April 2005. The day of his retirement, the Governor of the State of Oklahoma proclaimed April 16, 2005 as "Nate Brown Day"!

Nathaniel loved to golf and was a selfless person. People liked his patience and kind personality.

Nathaniel attended the Church of God (W.H.P W.H.O.B.) under the leadership of Chief Bishop William J. Fizer and later Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church and served under Reverend Allen Threatt III. He was a Deacon and a member of the Men's Choir. He was a faithful member until his death.

Nathaniel departed this life on February 13, 2023 at home. He was preceded in death by his wife Gussie V. Brown; his parents, his sister, Sarah Moten, his son, Nathaniel Brown, Jr.; grandsons, Jamaal Smith and Demetrius Flowers.

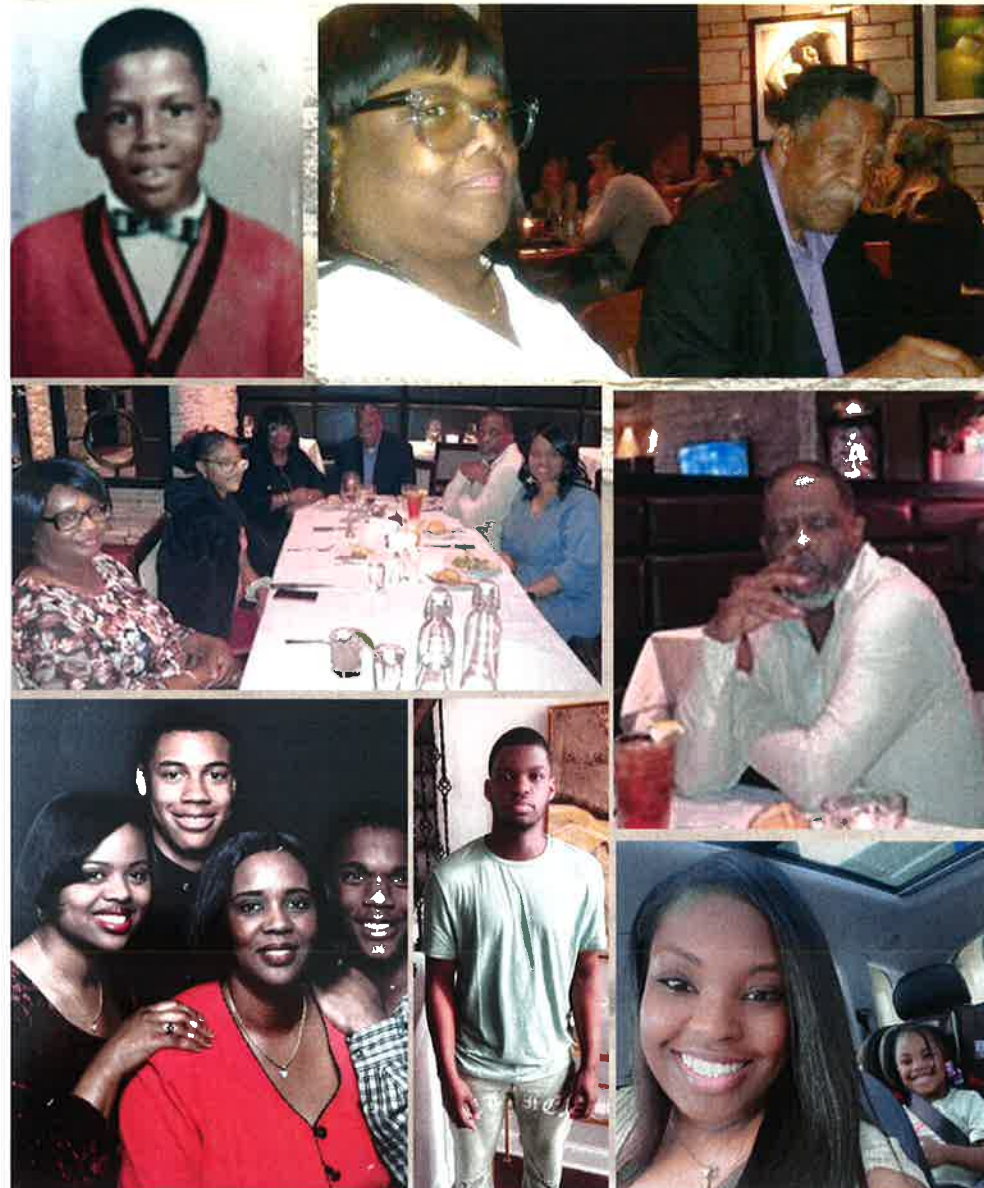

He leaves to cherish his memory, three children: Teresa Smith, Faleshia Brown and Javier Brown; sister, Geneva Robinson of Charleston, South Carolina; three grandchildren: Shonta Flowers, Damon Smith and Essence Chance (Zavier); four great grandchildren: DeShayla Flowers, Tiana Flowers, Jada Flowers, Jaiden Taylor; five great-great grandchildren: Jeremiah Flowers, Mariah Flowers, Zavier Chance, Serenity Chance, Nuri Chance; two nephews: Derek Moten, Kevin Moten; niece, Deborah Ann Moten; a host of cousins, relatives and friends.

In Loving Memory Of Dad

He never looked for praises
 He was never one to boast.
 He just went on quietly working
 For the ones he loved the most.
 His dreams were seldom spoken
 His wants were very few.
 And most of the time his worries
 Went unspoken too. He was there . . .

A firm foundation
 Through all our storms in life.
 A sturdy hand to hold on to
 In times of stress and strife.
 A true friend we could turn to
 When times were good or bad.
 One of our greatest blessings
 The man that we called Dad.
