

And the God of all grace, who called you to His eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will Himself restore you and make you strong, firm and steadfast.

1 Peter 5:10

HONORARY PALL BEARERS

Lorenzo Taylor
Tramel Jackson
Jermaine Navarro Sr.

Duran Jackson
Jarmel Jackson
Richard Colbert

PALL BEARERS

Jeremiah Taylor
Arthur Jackson
Jarrod Colbert
William Shells

Isaiah Taylor
Chris Jackson
Michael Colbert
Solomon Navarro

HONORARY FLOWER BEARERS

Nicole Navarro
BreAnna Taylor
Ruth Navarro
Briana Taylor

Rochelle Colbert
Naomi Taylor
Kiera Taylor
Jewell Jackson

FLOWER BEARERS

Donnice Shells
Tanisha James
Lakeisha Colbert

Benedria Smith
Rhonda Williams
Felicia Shells

In Celebration of Life

Rev. Brian D. Taylor

January 5, 1972—March 5, 2023

March 17, 2023

1:00 p.m.

Divine Vision International Worship Center

1391 N. Midwest Blvd.

Midwest City, Ok 73110

Pastor Lorenzo A. Taylor officiating

Obituary

Rev. Brian Taylor was born January 5, 1972 to Charles Sherman Taylor and Vicky Elaine Colbert. Brian was effected deeply by the early passing of his father Charles.

Brian attended Oklahoma City Schools graduating from Northeast High School and Wright College. In May of 1977, His mother met and married Elder Jackie Gene Jackson and they were married for forty years. Elder Jackson was an integral part of Brian's upbringing. He met and married Adrienne Joubert and to this union their daughter Breanna was born. And though the marriage ended in divorce, nothing delighted Brian more than caring for his daughter.

Brian was a multitalented young man that was not afraid to go after his dreams. He began his singing in the church but also participated with NEHS Voices of Excellence Choir. He was a musical artist along with younger brother Lorenzo they were members of the R&B group 4u2luv. As band members they traveled with the group around the country.

A chef and business owner Brian loved to cook and became a talented chef. He worked with several restaurants around the city. He enjoyed Cattleman's Restaurant , Crest Foods and Ingrid's Kitchen. He and brother Lorenzo owned and operated Brothers Cajun Restaurant. Up until his death he catered many fabulous meals for business offices.

A gospel artist and playwright. He and his brother Lorenzo and sister Nikki together were the Taylor Brothers & Company they produced their own cd titled "Praise Him". As a playwright Brian wrote, produced and acted in his own play titled " The Rev. Big Belly: I Ain't Going No-where" with the help of some really great friends.

Brian was called to preach and joined the ministry in 1997 and labored many years alongside his brothers in the ministry. Whatever Brian ventured to do he put his heart wholly in to it. He is a beloved family member that could never be replaced and his absence will be missed.

Brian is survived by A Host of Aunts and Uncles , family and friends. his daughter of the home Breanna Taylor; his brothers: Lorenzo Taylor (Briana), Duran Jackson, Tramel Jackson (Jewell), Jarmel Jackson all of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. One sister: Nicole Navarro (Jermaine) of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. He is preceded in death by his father Charles Sherman Taylor and Mother Vicky Elaine Jackson and a sister Britney Jackson.

The family of Rev. Brian Taylor would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for the love, compassion and support you have all shown to our family during this sad time.

We will always be grateful.

ORDER OF SERVICE

PROCESSIONAL

Master of ceremony Pastor Jason Anglin

Prayer Apostle, Rick Baxter

Old Testament Minister

New Testament Minister

Song Selection Minister Carl Moore

Poem, reading by daughter Breanna Taylor

Song Selection Eddie Horsey

Resolutions and Remarks (2minute limit)

Family song selection I got a right to praise him

Song Selection Elder Gates

Eulogy Pastor Lorenzo Antwone Taylor

Recessional

Parting view Temple and Son funeral home

Interment

Pilgrim Rest Cemetery

N.E. 63rd & Coltrane Rd.

Oklahoma City, OK

Repass

Chickasaw community center 4001 NW. 39th St.

BROTHER

YOU WENT AWAY SO SUDDENLY
NO TIME TO SAY GOODBYE
BUT BROTHERS CANT BE PARTED
PRECIOUS MEMORIES NEVER DIE.

